Givot moved that the Executive Director be directed to enter into negotiations with Rubino & McGeehan for the purpose of settling all outstanding financial obligations from the Party to Rubino & McGeehan for an amount not to exceed $1.

The motion failed on a vote of 6 to 7.

Item: Convention Committee Report

Neale reported on convention planning.

Nelson moved:

> Whereas, the 2002 Libertarian National Convention fell significantly short of budgeted projections,

> And, whereas, the current financial condition of the Libertarian National Committee, Inc. necessitates avoiding a recurrence of this with the 2004 Libertarian National Convention,

> Be it resolved that the Executive Director and the Convention Committee shall take all necessary and prudent actions to assure that:

1. Revenues from the 2004 convention (excluding fundraising at the convention banquet) shall meet or exceed all expenses associated with the convention (including, but not limited to, a fair and reasonable allocation of staff salaries and related staff costs devoted to producing the convention).

2. The LNC receives a preliminary revenue and expense budget for the 2004 convention, including proposed pricing of packages, at least two weeks before the September 2003 LNC meeting and a final budget for review and approval at the December 2003 LNC meeting.

3. Issues relating to convention registration, credentialing, and voting issues which are currently being identified and documented by the Secretary working with Emily Salvette, a member of the 2002 convention Credentials Committee are addressed and remediated in time for the 2004 convention.

4. The value of the more costly convention packages is protected by limiting access to certain events to those paying for such packages.

5. Provides monthly reports to the LNC on the planning, schedule, content, and budget of the 2004 convention by the last day of each month commencing with January 1, 2004 thru April 30, 2004, as well as a final pre-convention report to be presented at the pre-convention meeting of the LNC in Atlanta.

6. All revenues received for the 2004 convention are deposited into a separate bank account in which no other funds are deposited without explicit written approval of the Chair and the Treasurer, and out of which no payments or transfers shall be made without explicit written approval of the Chair and the Treasurer. Notice of any such authorizations by the Chair and Treasurer showing the amount and purpose of exceptions to this policy shall be provided by the Executive Director by email to the LNC within 24 hours of receipt of approval from the Chair and the Treasurer.

Be it further resolved that the Treasurer shall review items (1), (2), (5), and (6) above in a timely manner and provide a written report to the LNC in which the Treasurer states findings as to whether the Executive Director and Convention Committee have satisfied the requirements of this resolution as well as the Treasurer's opinion regarding the reasonableness of the information presented.

Be it further resolved that the Secretary shall review item (3) above and report to each LNC meeting beginning with the September 2003 meeting and ending with the pre-convention meeting in Atlanta with the Secretary's findings as to whether the Executive Director and Convention Committee have satisfied the requirements of this resolution as well as the Secretary’s opinion regarding the reasonableness of the actions taken to meet these requirements.

Cenci proposed postponing consideration of the motion until the following day.

The Committee agreed to postpone consideration of the motion until the following day without objection.

The amendment passed on a voice vote.

The main motion was then:

that a three member committee comprised of Bisson, Dehn, and Hagan be appointed for the purpose of developing a proposed new membership expiration policy
The motion passed on a voice vote.

Item: Consideration of Dues Changes

Neale advised the Committee that Rutherford’s motion from the prior LNC meeting was on the floor. That motion read:

- to amend Article II, Section 2 of the Policy Manual to make membership dues under paragraph A $50 instead of $25, to make membership dues under paragraph B $40 instead of $10, and amend Article II, Section 3 of the Policy Manual to set the price of a life membership at $2,500 instead of $1,000 to $2,500.

Givot moved to divide the question into three parts – one for each proposed change – and to consider them in the same sequence as in the original motion.

The motion to divide failed on a voice vote.

Hagan moved to amend the motion by adding the words “effective January 1, 2004.”

Redpath moved to amend the motion to change the “$50” to “$35” and to change “$40” to “$25.”

The amendment passed on a voice vote.

The motion failed on a vote of 7 to 7. The Chair abstained.

Childress moved to amend the motion to change the “$50” to “$40” and to change “$40” to “$25.”

The motion passed on a voice vote.

The main motion then read:
to amend Article II, Section 2 of the Policy Manual to make membership dues under paragraph A $40 instead of $25, to make membership dues under paragraph B $25 instead of $10, and amend Article II, Section 3 of the Policy Manual to set the price of a life membership at $2,500 instead of $1,000 to $2,500.

Nelson moved to add to the main motion a companion amendment to Article II, Section 7
A changing $1.00 to $1.50 and to change Article II, Section 8 changing “$0.50” to “$1.00”, changing “$1.50” to “$2.00”, and “$500” to “$1,500.”

Bisson moved to postpone consideration of all pending motions until the September 2003
LNC meeting.

The motion passed on a voice vote.

Givot moved that the ED be tasked with preparing a report analyzing all financial ramifications of each component of the proposed motions assuming all proposed amendments are approved and including the cost of implementation and provide his

After discussion, the motion was withdrawn without discussion.

Item: Policy on Notification of Failures to Comply

Givot moved to add the following language to the Policy Manual in a place deemed appropriate by the Chair and the Secretary:

> “The Executive Director shall notify the Chair in advance of any anticipated failure to comply with any agreement or contract with any individual, group, or organization. If the anticipated failure to comply cannot be mitigated in such a manner as to meet the terms of the agreement or contract, the Chair shall, at his earliest opportunity, notify the LNC as a whole as to the circumstance of the failure to comply. In the event that a failure to comply occurs without anticipation or notice, the Executive Director shall notify the LNC as a whole immediately. Additionally, the Executive Director shall inform the LNC as a whole as to the resolution of any failure to comply once resolved.”

After discussion, the motion was withdrawn without discussion.

Item: Policy on Late UMP Payments

Nelson moved to add the following language to the Policy Manual in a place deemed appropriate by the Chair and the Secretary:

> “The Executive Director shall notify the LNC immediately if any UMP payments are to be made over 48 hours beyond the contractual date.”

The motion failed.
Item: Policy on Standardized Agenda

Neale advised the Committee that Givot's motion from the prior LNC meeting was on the floor. That motion read:

to replace the language in LNC Policy Manual Article I, Section 2 A and also delete the current Article I, Section 2 E which is incorporated herein with the following language:
