CONVENTION FIRST SITTING DAY 1 - OPENING

CALL TO ORDER

The opening gavel was delayed due to technical problems with the audio/visual equipment and the Porcupine program.¹ While these were being resolved, various housekeeping announcements were made, including the WIFI password, the use of color-coded wristbands to indicate social distancing preferences, disinfecting wipes for the microphones, and procedures for credentialing.

A short in memoriam video prepared by 3L Productions was played honoring Libertarians who have passed away. A round of applause was extended to the Convention Oversight Committee for essentially planning three (3) in-person conventions this year and to Party staff for their assistance in same.

The second (2nd) sitting² of the regular 2020 biennial convention of the Libertarian Party was called to order in Orlando, Florida at 10:11 a.m. on July 9, 2020 by Party Vice-Chair Alex Merced. All time notations indicate Eastern Time.³

CONVENTION OFFICIALS AND COMMITTEE CHAIRS

Convention Chair: Alex Merced

Convention Secretary: Caryn Ann Harlos

Convention Parliamentarian: Richard Brown

Zoom Administrator: Daniel Fishman (Party Executive Director)

Credentials Committee Chair: Susan Hogarth

Convention Committee Chair: Bette Rose Ryan

Bylaws and Convention Rules Committee Chair: Joseph Bishop-Henchman

Platform Committee Chair: Caryn Ann Harlos

¹ Ultimately, the Porcupine application issues could not be resolved, and an alternate participation method of using Zoom polls was used.

² The 2020 Libertarian Party convention was bifurcated (see LNC Meeting Minutes dated May 2, 2020 and May 9, 2020). The first (1st) sitting took place online on May 22-24, 2020 via Zoom.

³ Simultaneously, a Zoom meeting was convened with proposed delegates seeking to participate remotely as per the July 4, 2020 decision of the Libertarian National Committee (LNC) stating that full online participation was authorized and that such remote delegates would be fully credentialed without further action of the convention. The delegates overturned that decision and then subsequently approved the online delegates as an action of the convention.

The final official delegate list provided to the Convention Secretary by the Credentials Committee is attached hereto as Appendix N.⁵

CREDENTIALS COMMITTEE REPORT

Susan Hogarth, as Chair of the Credentials Committee, presented the initial credentials report.⁶

As of 6:28 a.m. on July 9, 2020, 1039 delegates and 650 alternates were verified and approved by the Credentials Committee. As of the last report this morning, there were 186 on-site delegates and 208 remote delegates for a total of 494 delegates; and 28 on-site alternates and 49 remote alternates for a total of 77 alternates.

On behalf of the Credentials Committee, Ms. Hogarth moved to accept the credentials report.

Sam Goldstein (IN) OBJECTED to moving forward as there were numerous delegates who were unable to log into Porcupine.

John Phillips (IL) urged the delegates that since it was apparent that the super-majority of delegates wished to seat the online delegates to save time by ratifying the LNC decision, and if they felt that the LNC was out of line, they could move to censure the LNC.

Scott Lieberman (CA) requested the opinion of the Parliamentarian if the following amendments to the agenda would be the most expeditious way to have all delegates, both inperson and online, properly and quickly credentialed while minimizing the chance of a rogue Secretary of State or a rogue Elections Department removing Jo Jorgensen and Spike Cohen from the ballot by attempting to claim that the Libertarian Party did not follow its own bylaws and convention rules:

- 1. Only the in-person delegates vote to accept the list of only in-person delegates;
- 2. Only the in-person delegates immediately vote to suspend the rules to take up Bylaws Proposal 1;
- 3. Only the in-person delegates vote to approve Bylaws Proposal 1;

⁴ Mr. Logan also assisted in managing the online speaking queue.

⁶ Ms. Hogarth thanked the other members of the Credentials Committee as follows: Andrew Forrester (CA), Nathan Gall (WI), Leigh LaChine (AL), Pete Moulds (CA), Mark Potwora (NY), Emily Salvette (MI), Celicia Slafter (FL), Carl Wyzick(VA), Bo Zimmerman (TX), as well as national staff Andy Burns and Daniel Fishman.

- 4. A short recess would be taken to add the remote delegates to the list of the credentialed delegates; and then
- 5. The convention would resume with all of the in-person and remote delegate participating.

Nicholas Sarwark (NH) raised a POINT OF ORDER that it was out of order for Dr. Lieberman to request that the Parliamentarian engage in debate, and further it was out of order for him to ask the opinion of the Parliamentarian on what the best way was to do something and by such, he was sneaking the Parliamentarian into debate. Mr. Sarwark further stated that Dr. Lieberman may debate his own motion, but he may not have the Parliamentarian engage in debate on his behalf.⁷

Mr. Merced ruled the point of order NOT-WELL TAKEN and allowed the Parliamentarian to speak and express his opinion, and the delegates can choose what to do with that opinion.

Mr. Brown opined that Dr. Lieberman's proposed motion was the best way to accomplish that objective. He further stated that he has studied this issue at length and concluded that the Libertarian Party bylaws do not allow remote participation; as such, there needs to be a bylaw amendment to permit such participation and allowing the remote participants to vote on a bylaws amendment to let them participate would be nonsensical. Finally, he stated that the LNC exceeded its authority when it decreed that online participation was valid as only this convention had the authority to do so.

Angela McArdle (CA) moved to amend the Credentials Report to remove the remote participation delegates in order to vote on allowing remote participation by appropriate bylaws amendments that would permit such participation.

Mr. Merced ruled the McArdle motion OUT OF ORDER and stated that pursuant to *RONR*⁸ challenges to credentials reports must be made by name or by state delegation.

Ms. McArdle clarified that she was challenging by name since Ms. Hogarth had indicated that she had a list of the names of all of the remote participation delegates, and it was those that she was challenging as a block on the same grounds. Mr. Merced stated that would be IN ORDER.

Erin Adams (OK) raised an OBJECTION that the underlying Credentials Report was not correct in its reporting of both the in-person delegates and the remote delegates and until there was resolution on those issues, it was inappropriate to take up other motions.

Ed Wright (IA) raised an OBJECTION that requiring in-person delegates, who may be technically challenged, to interface with electronic voting processes does in fact require people to buy certain equipment in order to fully participate.

⁷ The Parliamentarian later clarified that he was retained to advise the convention body and not just the Chair.

⁸ Roberts Rules of Order, Newly Revised, 11th Edition

Mr. Merced ruled the Wright objection NOT WELL-TAKEN due to the extraordinary circumstances of the pandemic causing the spirit of the bylaws and convention rules to be broken by disenfranchising many fellow delegates if followed to the letter. In such a scenario, it was better to be able to participate at least somewhat, rather than fully or not at all, leading to the present arrangements which were only choice that allowed the most people to have a voice. He emphasized that this was unique to this year and does not apply to future conventions.

RECESS

Ken Moellman (KY) moved to recess for one (1) hour to resolve the ongoing credentials problems.

There was NO OBJECTION to the motion.

The convention entered into a one (1) hour recess.

The convention was called back to order at 11:35 a.m. and several announcements were made. There were still credentials issues to be resolved at that time.

LUNCH BREAK

Joshua Eakle (TN) moved to recess until after lunch to resolve the remaining credentials issues.

Aaron Starr (CA) raised a POINT OF ORDER that we cannot allow remote voting until it was specifically allowed by the in-person delegates via a bylaws amendment.

Mr. Merced ruled the point of order NOT WELL-TAKEN and ruled that until the credentials report either passed or failed, everyone listed on the report could vote.

The motion to recess PASSED both online via a Zoom poll and on the floor via a voice vote.

CREDENTIALS COMMITTEE REPORT (CONT'D)

The convention was called back to order at 2:00 p.m.

The previously stated McArdle motion was taken up as the immediately pending item of business as follows:

Angela McArdle (CA) moved to amend the Credentials Report to remove the remote participation delegates in order to vote on allowing remote participation by appropriate bylaws amendments that would permit such participation.

Erin Adams (OK) raised an OBJECTION that the delegates were not properly identified in the Porcupine application, and physical roll call should be called.

Upon request of Mr. Merced, Ms. Hogarth provided updated credentialing numbers as follows:9

	In-Person 300 Delegates
75 Alternates	40 Alternates

Ken Moellman (KY) moved for a physical roll call conducted state by state of those delegates present.

Nicholas Sarwark (NH) raised a POINT OF ORDER and asked how it was proper to exclude anyone from voting on the initial credentials report.

Mr. Merced ruled the Moellman motion OUT OF ORDER due to unfeasibility.

Mr. Moellman APPEALED from the ruling of the Chair.

Darryl Perry (NH) moved to divide the identification of delegates by state into identification individually and moved to end debate on all previous questions.

Upon being informed that Mr. Merced would rule that individual identification would be out of order, Mr. Perry agreed that identification by state would be sufficient.

Aaron Starr (CA) raised a POINT OF ORDER that remote delegates cannot make motions since their status was in dispute.

Mr. Merced ruled the point of order NOT WELL-TAKEN and stated that he would be recognizing all persons listed on the credentials report. He further ruled that challenges to delegates must be made by name or by state and not by location status.

Alicia Mattson (CA) raised a POINT OF ORDER stating that despite the assertions of the inperson delegate from New Hampshire, RONR does not clearly state that all delegates listed in the credentials report are entitled to vote and that it says that when delegates are under challenge, they may not vote on their own challenge. There was a pending motion questioning the status of those delegates, so they cannot be allowed to participate until there was a resolution to that challenge.

⁹ Ms. Hogarth also clarified that the Credentials Committee did know who was present in the hall as they had stopped by the credentials desk to check in.

Mr. Merced repeated his prior ruling and stated that RONR was intended to prevent a minority of the delegates from removing a majority of the delegates which was what was at issue in the disputed situation since the majority of delegates were remote.

An unidentified delegate raised a POINT OF ORDER asking what authority the Chair was relying upon to recognize remote delegates since the adjournment motion from the first (1st) sitting was to adjourn to an in-person convention and not a hybrid convention.

Mr. Merced ruled the point of order NOT WELL-TAKEN and stated that since delegates were present in a physical place as required and referenced the prior LNC decision to allow remote participation. As such, all those listed in the credential report comprised the convention delegates until amended. At the request of the Chair, Ms. Hogarth confirmed that all persons on the credentials report were eligible under our current rules to be delegates and can provide a written list of all of the names.

At the instruction of the Chair, a test vote was sent to make sure that everyone could vote on the Porcupine application.

Aaron Starr raised a POINT OF ORDER and stated that our rules do not allow ballots except for elections.

Mr. Merced ruled the point of order NOT WELL-TAKEN and stated that extraordinary circumstances allow this deviation.

Mr. Starr APPEALED from the ruling of the Chair and referenced Convention Rule 2 in support of his argument that it was the authority of the body to be accommodating and not the Chair's.

Mr. Merced stated that debate would proceed on the prior Moellman appeal but was interrupted by an additional POINT OF ORDER from an unidentified delegate who questioned the authority to recognize remote delegates to speak. Mr. Merced ruled that point of order NOT WELL-TAKEN as the authority was given by the LNC who decided that this convention would include both in-person and remote delegates which was justified by these extraordinary circumstances. As such, voting would be conducted by Zoom polls and in-person standing votes.

Michael Heise (PA) raised a point of parliamentary inquiry on whether or not the LNC had the authority that the Chair was relying upon to unilaterally determine that remote voting would be allowed as well as the split credentialing issue.

Mr. Merced stated that it was his position that the LNC had this authority under emergency provisions, and although the Parliamentarian may have a different position, he was the one making rulings.

Dustin Nanna (OH) moved to adjourn until 9:00 a.m. tomorrow to resolve all pending issues.

Arthur Thomas (TX) raised a security issue that people could vote twice under the method proposed by participating in the standing vote here on the convention floor and also signing in and participating in the Zoom poll.

A poll was taken to consider the motion to adjourn resulting in the following:

Shall we adjourn until 9:00 a.m. tomorrow?
Yes	124
No	249

Simultaneously, a rising vote was taken of the in-person delegates which was combined with the results of the online poll.

The motion to adjourn FAILED.

A poll was taken regarding the Moellman appeal from the ruling of the Chair that a state-bystate attendance roll of the in-person delegates was out of order due to infeasibility resulting in the following:

Shall the ruling of the Chair be sustained?
Yes	284
No	104

Simultaneously, a rising vote was taken of the in-person delegates which was combined with the results of the online poll.

The ruling of the Chair was OVERTURNED.

Bill McVay (DE) reminded the Chair that all previous questions had been called, and there should be no further debate as some delegates were attempting to do.

The Starr appeal was considered next. Mr. Merced stated that since online voting was the item being challenged, only the standing vote in the room would be taken on this appeal.

The ruling of the Chair was OVERTURNED upon a standing vote.

Erin Adams (OK) OBJECTED that any voting was illegitimate since the credentials report was still pending.

Mr. Merced reminded the convention that all previous questions had been called.

Since the Chair's ruling on the Moellman motion was overturned, it became pending as follows:

Ken Moellman (KY) moved for a physical roll call conducted state by state of those delegates present.

The motion PASSED via a voice vote comprising only the in-person delegates.

Andy Craig (CA) raised a POINT OF ORDER that suddenly, without any decision of the body, the remote delegates were improperly being excluded from votes.

WITHOUT OBJECTION, the convention stood briefly at ease while Mr. Merced conferred with the Parliamentarian regarding the Mr. Craig's point of order, and Ms. Hogarth assisted with credentials questions and issues.

Mimi Robson (CA) stated that the Moellman motion required each delegation chair to compile a list of those delegates who were present from their state and then to read those lists aloud.

WITHOUT OBJECTION, the convention stood at ease to give time for the delegation chairs to compile the appropriate lists of their delegates. Vice-Presidential candidate Spike Cohen was given time to speak to the body during this downtime.

The convention came back to order at 4:15 p.m.

Mr. Merced ruled Mr. Craig's point of order WELL-TAKEN as the LNC did authorize remote participation, and the remote delegates were listed as part of the credentials report and should be allowed to vote on these motions. In summary, it was his ruling that the decision of the LNC was binding and proper.

Aaron Starr (CA) APPEALED from the ruling of the Chair affirming the LNC's decision to allow remote participation as that was not within the authority of the LNC but rather belongs to this body.

Kevin Moore (CA) moved to end debate on all previous questions.

The motion to end debate *PASSED.*¹⁰ Mr. Perry had also moved to end debate on all previous questions earlier.

The previously pending questions included the following:

 Aaron Starr (CA) APPEALED from the ruling of the Chair affirming the LNC's decision to allow remote participation as that was not within the authority of the LNC but rather belongs to this body.

¹⁰ It was unclear whether the remote delegates were allowed to participate in that vote.

- Angela McArdle (CA) moved to amend the Credentials Report to remove the remote participation delegates in order to vote on allowing remote participation by appropriate bylaws amendments that would permit such application.
- On behalf of the Credentials Committee, Ms. Hogarth moved to accept the credentials report.

Voting then proceeded on the Starr appeal. Pursuant to an earlier decision of the body which overturned a prior ruling of the Chair, only the in-person delegates were permitted to vote on this appeal.

The ruling of the Chair was OVERTURNED regarding the authority of the LNC, and the automatic acceptance of both online and in-person delegates as listed in the initial credentials report.

Mr. Merced passed the gavel to Omar Recuero (FL) as Mr. Merced did not feel that he could preside while the remote delegates were excluded.

WITHOUT OBJECTION, the convention stood at ease with regards to formal business to allow time for Ms. Hogarth to prepare the data ordered by the Moellman's motion for a roll call of the in-person delegates. However, Mr. Recuero stated he would entertain points of information and personal privilege during this down-time.

Marc Tancer (FL) moved to extend time until 6:00 p.m.

Mr. Recuero ruled the motion OUT OF ORDER as no agenda had been adopted.

WITHOUT OBJECTION, the convention once again stood at ease.

The Secretary's screen was displayed with the names of the delegates and alternates from every state who were present in the hall. This list comprised the names of everyone who physically checked in at the credentials desk. Names with arrows on the outside were people who checked in but were not included on their corresponding Delegation Chair's list that was gathered earlier in the day. Names which were handwritten on the side were names of people who were present but did not physically check in with the credentials desk.¹¹ The reported numbers for the in-person attendees was 300 delegates and 40 alternates.

Mr. Moellman indicated that this information satisfied his motion.

The next item of business was the McArdle motion as follows:

¹¹ This list had been preserved and was filed with the convention records archive maintained by the Party Secretary.

Angela McArdle (CA) moved to amend the Credentials Report to remove the remote participation delegates in order to vote on allowing remote participation by appropriate bylaws amendments that would permit such participation.

Nicholas Sarwark (NH) raised a POINT OF ORDER that all delegates, whether in person or remote, should be allowed to vote on the McArdle motion. Mr. Recuero ruled the point of order NOT WELL-TAKEN.

The McArdle amendment PASSED by a voice vote of only the in-person delegates.

Alicia Mattson (CA) moved to adopt the credentials report as amended.

The amended credentials report was ADOPTED.

SUSPENSION OF THE RULES – CONSIDER BYLAWS AMENDMENT ALLOWING REMOTE PARTICIPATION FOR 2020

Joseph Bishop-Henchman (DC) moved to suspend the rules to, in one (1) compound motion, adopt the agenda, proceed to the Bylaws and Convention Rules Committee report, and approve Proposal 1 of the Bylaws Committee as follows:

Proposal 1 Remote Participation for 2020 Convention

PARTICIPATION FOR 2020 CONVENTION

For the 2020 Regular Convention, if authorized by their state delegation chair, delegates may register in attendance, be counted as virtually present on the floor, and participate in business remotely through electronic means provided for by the national committee.

Provided, this article shall take immediate effect and be automatically repealed upon the final adjournment of the 2020 Regular Convention.

An unidentified delegate OBJECTED to consideration of the question.

The objection to consideration of the question FAILED upon a voice vote.

Mr. Recuero noted that the motion was worded as a compound motion to suspend the rules and adopt so that no debate would be permitted.

John Phillips (IL) moved to divide by considering the adoption of the agenda separate from all other items.

Mr. Recuero, upon advice of the Parliamentarian, stated that the Phillips motion to divide fell under an exception in RONR permitting division upon the request of one (1) member. 12

Will McVay (DE) raised a POINT OF ORDER that a motion for suspension of the rules cannot be divided. Mr. Recuero ruled the point of order NOT WELL-TAKEN.

ADOPTION OF THE AGENDA FOR THE SECOND SITTING

The immediately pending item of business was the approval of the agenda as per the division of the Bishop-Henchman motion.

D. Frank Robinson (OK) moved to adjourn until the following morning at 9:00 a.m.

The motion to adjourn FAILED upon a voice vote.

WITHOUT OBJECTION, Matthew Long (CT) moved to end debate on the previous question.

The motion to adopt the agenda PASSED upon a voice vote. The agenda for the second (2nd) sitting of the 2020 National Convention was set as follows:

- 1. Call to Order
- 2. Credentials Committee Report
- 3. Adoption of Agenda
- 4. Treasurer's Report
- 5. Audit Committee Report
- 6. Bylaws and Convention Rules Committee Report
- 7. LNC Elections
- 8. Platform Committee Report
- 9. Adjournment Sine Die

Erin Adams (OK) called for ORDERS OF THE DAY as the Regional Caucuses were scheduled to start in three (3) minutes at the adjoining hotel. Mr. Recuero indicated that he would be proceed to a vote on the second (2nd) part of the Bishop-Henchman motion first as it appeared no further debate was desired.

BYLAWS AND CONVENTION RULES COMMITTEE REPORT

The immediately pending item of business was consideration of Proposal 1, without debate, as per the division of the Bishop-Henchman motion as follows:¹³

¹³ There was some confusion with many stating that the report of the Bylaws and Convention Rules Committee was the next item of business when it was not. However, the original Bishop-Henchman motion prior to division was to suspend the rules to take that sole proposal up immediately which required the same threshold as a suspension of the rules to modify the agenda to take it up out of order. The proposal passed exceeding that threshold (2/3rd vote).

Proposal 1 Remote Participation for 2020 Convention

PARTICIPATION FOR 2020 CONVENTION

For the 2020 Regular Convention, if authorized by their state delegation chair, delegates may register in attendance, be counted as virtually present on the floor, and participate in business remotely through electronic means provided for by the national committee.

Provided, this article shall take immediate effect and be automatically repealed upon the final adjournment of the 2020 Regular Convention.

WITHOUT OBJECTION, Matthew Long (CT) moved to end debate on the previous question.

Proposal 1 PASSED upon a standing vote and was adopted effective immediately.

Mr. Recuero passed the gavel back to Mr. Merced.

CONVENTION SECOND SITTING DAY 1 - ADJOURNMENT

D. Frank Robinson (OK) moved to adjourn until the following morning at 9:00 a.m.

The motion to adjourn PASSED upon a voice vote.

The first (1st) day of the second (2nd) sitting of the convention adjourned at 6:04 p.m. to reconvene at 9:00 a.m. the following day.

Following adjournment, informal announcements were heard.

CONVENTION SECOND SITTING DAY 2 - OPENING

The second (2nd) day of the second (2nd) sitting of the regular 2020 biennial convention of the Libertarian Party was called to order both in-person and online via Zoom at 9:08 a.m. on July 10, 2020 by Alex Merced.

CREDENTIALS COMMITTEE UPDATE

Susan Hogarth, as Chair of the Credentials Committee, presented the credentials report with numbers reported as follows:

Remote	In-Person
442 Delegates	310 Delegates
138 Alternates	45 Alternates

On behalf of the Credentials Committee, Ms. Hogarth moved to accept the credentials report.

WITHOUT OBJECTION, John Phillips (IL) moved to end debate.

The motion to approve the Credentials Committee report PASSED by a voice vote of the inperson delegates only as discussion had not yet taken place regarding the status of the Porcupine app and online voting.

ARRANGEMENTS FOR ONLINE PARTICIPATION

In order to address the issue of online voting and participation, the Convention Oversight Committee met the previous evening. Committee member Ken Moellman was asked to present the decisions made at that meeting.

Mr. Moellman reported that it was decided that Zoom would be provided for all delegates for viewing purposes and that voting would be done by Election Buddy or some other method as the state delegation chairs may provide.

Nicholas Sarwark (NH) raised a POINT OF ORDER that the Convention Oversight Committee has no authority to act on behalf of the LNC. The Chair allowed Mr. Moellman to respond. Mr. Moellman disagreed and cited the Policy Manual as follows:

The Convention Oversight Committee shall make recommendations for convention sites to the LNC, but the LNC shall choose the site. On other matters concerning the Party's conventions, the committee shall act on behalf of the LNC. (Section 2.02.7)

In order to address the issue, Mr. Merced stated that for voice and standing votes, he would continue use of the hybrid method employed the previous day. If any votes were very close and need more clarity, then for those votes only, Election Buddy or another manner chosen by the delegation chairs would be used. Mr. Merced stated that while the round two (2) balloting was being conducted for the LNC Chair election, it was his intention to take nominations for Treasurer and then Vice-Chair. There was objection.

Omar Recuero (FL) moved to extend time for the evening adjournment from 5:00 p.m. to 6:00 p.m.

There were multiple requests for motions to suspend the rules to extend time for the day to 7:00 p.m. Mr. Merced ruled all such motions OUT OF ORDER as dilatory and unable to be heard as time had already expired and as such although not formally declared, this session adjourned at 6:00 p.m. There were attempts to appeal this ruling. Mr. Merced repeated that no appeals could be done after adjournment as that opportunity had passed.

CONVENTION SECOND SITTING DAY 3 - ADJOURNMENT

CREDENTIALS COMMITTEE UPDATE

Susan Hogarth, as Chair of the Credentials Committee, presented the credentials report with numbers reported as follows:

Remote	In-Person
493 Delegates	346 Delegates
174 Alternates

It was noted that ten (10) delegates have checked out and that quorum was 423 out of 1,056 credentialed voters.

On behalf of the Credentials Committee, Ms. Hogarth moved to accept the credentials report.

Aaron Starr raised a POINT OF ORDER asked how there could be a total of 1,056 delegates when the maximum number of possible delegates if every state had filled their delegation was 1,046 delegates. Ms. Hogarth explained this was under the assumption that the online alternates were acting as delegates; however, the same could not be said to be true of the inperson delegates. It was the ultimate responsibility of the delegation chairs to make sure only proper delegates are voting. Mr. Starr questioned why quorum was being based on the higher number but decided not to pursue the issue.

There was NO OBJECTION to adopting the credentials report.

SUSPENSION OF THE RULES – LIMIT NOMINATING SPEECHES AND USE APPROVAL VOTING

Adam Shuknecht (CO) moved to suspend the rules to adjust the length of all LNC At-Large and Judicial Committee nominating speeches to a blank; to adopt approval voting for all LNC and JC positions with seats being filled by plurality in the first (1st) round of balloting. This rule suspension would expire at the close of the 2020 convention.

Omar Recuero (FL) asked that a moment of recognition be given in honor of that day being the birthdays of both elected Libertarian Jeff Hewitt (CA) and former gubernatorial candidate Larry Sharpe (NY).

A poll was taken on whether or not to suspend the rules to adjust the length of all LNC At-Large speeches to a blank and adopt approval voting for all LNC and JC positions with seats being filled by plurality in the first (1st) round of voting resulting in the following:

Shall we suspend the rules to adjust the length of all LNC At-Large speeches to a blank and adopt approval voting for all LNC and JC positions with seats being filled by plurality in the first (1st) round of voting?

ti io ili ot (i	r y round or voung:
Yes	232
No	67

After the poll was closed, a rising vote was taken of the in-person delegates which was combined with the results of the online poll.

The motion to suspend the rules PASSED.

Carolyn Wade (OR) moved to divide the question.

Mr. Merced ruled the motion OUT OF ORDER as the motion had already passed and all that was left was to fill the blank.

Jim Fulner (MI) demanded that the question be divided as they are entirely unrelated.

Mr. Merced repeated his ruling that he had given to Ms. Wade.

Extensive discussion happened on the proper way to handle the issue of the blank.

Ms. Harlos asked Mr. Recuero to take up Secretary duties temporarily.

Caryn Ann Harlos (CO) raised a POINT OF ORDER regarding an email sent out by the Executive Director stating that there were cases of double voting in the Zoom polls which raises serious issues about the integrity of the process. Mr. Fishman clarified this only affected the Zoom polls and not any balloted votes. No clear resolution was offered other than asking people not to do that.

A poll was taken on whether or not to fill the blank in the prior motion with two (2) minutes resulting in the following:

Shall we fill the blank in the prior motion with two (2) minutes?
Yes	316
No	62

After the poll was closed, a rising vote was taken of the in-person delegates which was combined with the results of the online poll.

The motion to fill the blank with two (2) minutes PASSED.

Mr. Merced reminded everyone that those who have previously spoken would be limited to one (1) minute pursuant to the motion that was passed the day before. An unidentified delegate objected that the immediately prior motion would have superseded the earlier motion so that everyone would have two (2) minutes. Mr. Merced declined to debate over an additional minute and conceded the point.

Yes	346
No	71

After the poll was closed, a rising vote was taken of the in-person delegates which was combined with the results of the online poll.

The motion to close nominations PASSED.

Nicholas Sarwark (NH) raised a point of parliamentary inquiry questioning the validity of changing the method of voting for the LNC officers since the method is prescribed in the bylaws which are not suspendable. Mr. Merced ruled that the method of voting is not prescribed in the bylaws but in the convention rules which are suspendable. However, RONR²³ states that officers cannot be elected by a plurality absent a bylaws provision allowing same. As such, if no one obtains a majority via approval voting in the LNC Vice-Chair and LNC Secretary races, subsequent rounds would be needed until a majority was obtained.

SUSPENSION OF THE RULES – LIMIT VOTES ON APPROVAL VOTING BALLOTS FOR AT-LARGE AND JUDICIAL COMMITTEE TO NUMBER OF OPEN SEATS

Nicholas Sarwark (NH) moved to suspend the rules so that the voting method for At-Large and Judicial Committee elections would be limited to the maximum number of five (5) for At-Large and seven (7) for Judicial Committee.

A poll was taken on whether or not to suspend the rules so that the voting method for At-Large and Judicial Committee elections would be limited to the maximum number of five (5) for At-Large and seven (7) for Judicial Committee resulting in the following:

The convention stood at ease for ten (10) minutes.

While the convention stood at ease, Starchild (CA) asked to read the text of a resolution that he intended to move for consideration later. It was permitted.²⁵ Other announcements were also made.

Mr. Merced stated that although it was in order to proceed with the additional ballots at this time, as there was overlap in candidates, and this convention belonged to the delegates and not to him or anyone else, he inquired of the will of the delegates in this matter.

ELECTION OF LNC SECRETARY (CONT'D)

Whereas the Libertarian Party stands in defense of the individual and in opposition to the cult of the omnipotent state; and

Whereas influenza (the common seasonal flu) kills an estimated 290,00 to 600,000 people a year worldwide, while Covid-19 has killed fewer than 600,00 people worldwide; and

Whereas places like Sweden and Japan where government lockdown measures have largely been avoided have not experienced significantly if any higher reported death rates from Covid-19 than other jurisdictions which have adopted stringent authoritarian lockdowns; and

Whereas the majority of deaths in many countries have occurred in nursing and convalescent homes and similar facilities, and the average age of victims has often been over 80; and

Whereas many reported death tolls have been exaggerated by systematically recording people who have died WITH the virus as having died FROM the virus, even when they had other co-morbidities or serious pre-existing conditions which may have been the primary causes of death; and

Whereas hospitals have been given Federal grant money for reporting Covid deaths as well as higher insurance compensation rates for Covid related deaths, thereby incentivizing them to attribute deaths to the virus; and

Whereas the reported "surges" or "second waves" in the number of new cases can be mainly attributed to increased testing, especially of people in hospitals; and

Whereas Libertarians see the death and suffering caused by government lockdowns, unemployment, and business closures, including higher suicide rates, increased domestic violence, and health conditions related to isolation, loneliness and stress; and

Whereas the damage to the world economy as a result of the lockdowns, restrictions on trade and travel, and increased government spending and debt have been incalculable;

Therefore be it resolved that the Libertarian Party of the United States calls upon governments around the world as well as here in the U.S. to immediately end their virus-related lockdowns, restrictions and bailouts, open their borders, open their economies, and cease their violations of basic human and civil rights in the name of public safety.

ELECTION OF AT-LARGE AND JUDICIAL COMMITTEE (CONT'D)

Mr. Merced reviewed the instructions for these ballots as per various motions passed earlier.

Aaron Starr (CA) raised a POINT OF ORDER that as per Bylaws Article 10.7, NOTA is not a valid option for Judicial Committee. An unidentified delegate and Nicholas Sarwark (NH) noted that Convention Rule 9 would add NOTA as an option for Judicial Committee. Mr. Starr conceded the point.

Ballots and tally sheets for the At-Large elections were distributed.

²⁶ Ms. Harlos did not participate in any counting or auditing of ballots in the LNC Secretary race having put Head Teller Ashley Vinson in supervision of same to avoid any appearance of impropriety as she was a candidate. Ms. Harlos remained unaware of the results until she displayed them to the convention.

Mr. Merced announced that there would be no LNC following adjournment and that it would occur online at a later date to be determined.

Ballots and tally sheets for the Judicial Committee were distributed.

PLATFORM COMMITTEE REPORT

Sam Goldstein (IN) moved to suspend the rules to immediately take up the Platform Committee report.

Mr. Merced stated this would not be necessary as this is the next item on the agenda.

SUSPENSION THE RULES – RESOLUTION CONDEMING THE GOVERNMENT'S RESPONSE TO COVID-19

Starchild (CA) moved to suspend the rules to take up consideration of a resolution condemning the government's response to COVID-19.

A poll was taken on whether or not to suspend the rules to take up consideration of a resolution condemning the government's response to COVID-19 resulting in the following:

Shall we	suspend the rules to take up consideration of a resolution condemning the
governme	ent's response to COVID-19?
Yes	73
No	270

After the poll was closed, a rising vote was taken of the in-person delegates which was combined with the results of the online poll.

The motion to suspend the rules FAILED.²⁷

Caryn Ann Harlos was recognized, as Chair of the Platform Committee, to begin presentation of the Platform Committee report.

PLATFORM DELETION TOKENS

Whereas governmental bodies in the ongoing COVID-19 crisis have stepped beyond their rightful powers, and

Whereas no person or organization can claim to hold the principles of liberty in times of peace and plenty who does not hold them as firmly in times of emergency,

Be it therefore resolved that the Libertarian National Committee make known its opposition to tyranny in humanitarian's clothing, affirming that:

No "emergency," whether declared or undeclared, shall be used as a pretext or justification for the limitation of any of the rights and freedoms of the individual, or for the expansion of the powers of government or any of its agencies, representatives, or member institutions.

²⁷ The LNC had previously passed a resolution on the COVD-19 crisis under Ballot 200508-1 as follows:

An unidentified delegate raised a POINT OF ORDER that the platform deletion token vote needed to be taken up first.

Mr. Merced ruled the point of order WELL-TAKEN.

Brief announcements were heard while the platform deletion token totals were finalized.

Caryn Ann Harlos presented the platform deletion token results. Any plank that received 210 tokens would qualify for an non-debatable up/down deletion vote. The only plank that qualified was plank 1.5 "Abortion" which received 1,041 tokens. A complete listing of the token totals is listed in Appendix M.

A brief break was entered into in order to view a new Jo Jorgensen commercial.

A poll was taken on whether or not to delete Platform Plank 1.5 "Abortion" resulting in the following:

Shall we	delete Platform Plank 1.5 "Abortion"?
Yes	148
No	230

After the poll was closed, a rising vote was taken of the in-person delegates which was combined with the results of the online poll.

The vote to delete Platform Plank 1.5 "Abortion" FAILED.²⁸

An unidentified delegate called for division.

Mr. Merced ruled the request OUT OF ORDER as dilatory.

SUSPENSION OF THE RULES - EXTENSION OF TIME

Mr. Merced inquired if there would be an objection to an extension of the rules to extend time until 5:00 p.m. There was an OBJECTION.

Discussion was had over the implications of adjourning before the At-Large and Judicial Committee results were announced. There is precedent (including in 2018) for announcing results after adjournment when they are tabulated and audited by the Secretary and teller team. It was noted that some states have not yet turned in their tally sheets.

A poll was taken on whether or not to extend time until 5:00 p.m. resulting in the following:

²⁸ A history of the abortion plank and the platform deletion token history can be found at: https://lpedia.org/wiki/Platform_Token_Deletion_Vote

Shall we	extend time until 5:00 p.m.?
Yes	220
No	150

After the poll was closed, a rising vote was taken of the in-person delegates which was combined with the results of the online poll.

The motion to extend time FAILED.

SUSPENSION OF THE RULES – TEMPORARY AMENDMENT TO BYLAWS ARTICLE 10.1

Will McVeigh (DE) moved to suspend the rules to amend the Party Bylaws Article 10.1 which requires all business to be conducted at Regular Conventions to amend that articles with a temporary provision expiring at the end of 2020 allowing the LNC to call a special online convention of all credentialed 2020 regular convention delegates to complete the business called for in Rule 1 of the Convention Rules of Order for 2020 including the online and inperson delegates.²⁹

The Convention Secretary gave an update on the anticipated time frames for the results of the At-Large and Judicial Committee elections that were well over an hour due to the teller team operating as a skeleton crew since the convention has gone way over time.

A poll was taken on whether or not to suspend the rules to temporarily amend Bylaws Article 10.1 resulting in the following:

Shall we suspend the rules to temporarily amend Bylaws Article 10.1?
Yes	172
No	[inaudible on recording]

After the poll was closed, a rising vote was taken of the in-person delegates which was combined with the results of the online poll.

The motion to suspend the rules FAILED.

Aaron Starr (CA) moved to adjourn sine die.

Mr. Merced ruled the motion OUT OF ORDER since Mr. Starr was recognized under the auspices of a privileged motion, and that was not a privileged motion and would need to wait its turn.

²⁹ The original motion had stated to consider the bylaws amendment for ten (10) minutes but at the advise of the Chair due calls for order of the day, that portion was dropped.

Mr. Merced asked if there would be an objection to adjourning at 4:00 p.m. under the agreement that the election tabulation would continue until the results were finished, and that the elections results would be what they are reported. There was an OBJECTION.

Nicholas Sarwark (NH) raised a POINT OF ORDER that it requires no vote of the body for the election tabulation to continue and for the results to be official. Mr. Merced ruled the point of order WELL-TAKEN.

CONVENTION SECOND SITTING DAY 4 - ADJOURNMENT SINE DIE

The fourth (4th) day of the second (2nd) sitting of the convention adjourned sine die at 4:00 p.m.

PROCEDURAL ADDENDA ON POST-ADJOURNMENT ELECTION RESULTS

The incoming Chair Joseph Bishop-Henchman, Convention Secretary and returning LNC Secretary Caryn Ann Harlos, and the teller team worked throughout the rest of the night to tabulate and audit the At-Large and Judicial Committee results. When that was completed they were declared to be preliminary and emailed to each Delegation Chair for verification to simulate the process that would take place on the convention floor. Corrections were made as needed. When each state was verified, the results were certified as final by the Secretary and the Chair and posted on the Party website on July 14, 2020.³⁰

SPECIAL THANKS FROM CONVENTION SECRETARY

It takes a [Libertarian] village to run a Libertarian convention, and there were more heroes during this time of unexpected events than can be individually mentioned. However, I would like to try to acknowledge some folks that were absolutely critical in assisting this new Secretary in these unprecedented conditions. My Teller Team, and in particular the Head Tellers at second sitting: Mike Seebeck and Ashley Vinson – you were all my right hand, and in no way could the elections have proceeded without you. Omar Recuero for being always available to fill in for me and Convention Chair Merced. Alicia Mattson and Aaron Starr for your unflagging dedication to upholding our Party bylaws and providing advice. Sam Goldstein for your moral support and hard work on the Convention Oversight Committee. T.J. Ferreira for your assistance in more ways than I can count – your Porcupine application will be the wave of our future conventions. Richard Brown for going above and beyond your Convention Parliamentarian duties. I am in anguish that I inevitably am missing someone. Please know you all are appreciated beyond expression. And last of all, to my husband Wayne Harlos for being my pillar of support and life partner.

Respectfully submitted,

LNC Secretary and Convention Secretary ~ Secretary@LP.org ~ 561.523.2250

Management's Responsibility for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America; this includes the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditor's Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the entity's preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control. Accordingly, we express no such opinion.

To the Board of Directors Libertarian National Committee, Inc.

An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Opinion

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Libertarian National Committee as of December 31, 2018, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the year then ended in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Note A – Organization & Nature of Activities

Organization: The Libertarian National Committee, Inc. (the Committee) was founded in 1971 as a national, tax-exempt political organization which is the operational arm of the Libertarian Party, a grassroots political organization. The Committee was incorporated in February 1995 and its affairs are directed by its National Board of Directors, who are elected by delegates bi-annually at the national convention. The Committee, with the consent of the delegates, also establishes the platform of the Libertarian Party, which is based upon the basic premises of civil liberties and personal freedom, a free-market economy, free trade, and a foreign policy of non-intervention and peace. The Committee has approximately 13,800 contributing members.

Programs: The Committee's program activities consist of affiliate support, which comprises developing or supporting state and county affiliate parties; ballot access, which comprises getting candidates on ballots and includes corresponding lawsuits required to accomplish such; brand development, which is the process of developing an image in the minds of voters; campus outreach, which represents campus recruiting and support groups; candidate support, which comprises recruiting and supporting candidates with their electoral ambitions; litigation support, which includes proactive lawsuits to change public policy, other than ballot access; lobbying, which includes efforts to persuade legislators to change laws, including ballot access laws; media relations, which consists of direct communication with the media; member communications, which is comprised of the Libertarian Party News periodical and other member communications; outreach, which includes initiatives to reach the general public and outside groups; and voter registration, which consist of voter registration campaign initiatives.

Note B - Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Basis of Accounting and Presentation: The Committee prepares its financial statements on the accrual basis of accounting. Consequently, revenue is recognized when earned and expenses when obligations are incurred. The financial statements include certain prior-year summarized comparative information in total and not by net asset class. Such information does not include sufficient detail to constitute a presentation in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. Accordingly, such information should be read in conjunction with the Committee's financial statements as of and for the year ended December 31, 2017, from which the summarized information was derived. Certain prior year information was reclassified to adhere with the current financial statement presentation.

Income Tax Status: The Committee is recognized as a tax-exempt political organization under Section 527 of the Internal Revenue Code (IRC). Under IRC Section 527, the Committee's exempt functions include all activities that relate to and support the process of influencing or attempting to influence the selection, nomination, election, or appointment of any individual to a public or political office.

Note B - Summary of Significant Accounting Policies - Continued

Income Tax Status - Continued: Certain activities unrelated to the exempt purpose, such as net investment income, are subject to taxation. During the years ended December 31, 2018 and 2017, the Committee incurred no significant income tax expense on its net investment income, which was under the specific deduction amount of $100 available on Form 1120-POL. Although the Committee has not received any notice of intent to examine its tax returns, the Committee's tax returns remain subject to examination by tax authorities pursuant to various statutes of limitation. The Committee is also subject to oversight by the Federal Election Commission.

Revenue Recognition: Contributions and donations and bequests and legacies are recorded when received or when the unconditional promise-to-give is known at the earliest point determinable and measurable. They are recorded by the Committee as increases its nets assets without donor restrictions or net assets with donor restrictions based upon the existence or lack of donor-imposed restrictions. Any restricted amounts received and release from restriction in the same reporting period are reported as net assets without donor restrictions. Restricted resources from prior years in which the Committee meets the donor's restriction during the current year are reflected as net assets released from restrictions. Donated goods or contributed services meeting the requirements for recognition under accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America are reported at fair value at the time of donation. The Committee treats membership dues as contributions and donations in the accompanying financial statements given that members receive de minimis benefits in exchange for their dues. Revenue from contributions and donations are recognized at the earliest point an unconditional promise-to-give is both determinable and measurable. Revenue from conditional promises-to-give are recognized as the donor or grantor's conditions are substantially met. Revenue from any program service activities and conventions and events are recognized when earned.

Cash and Cash Equivalents: For financial statement presentation purposes, the Committee considers highly liquid debt instruments with maturities of three months or less, including money market funds, to be cash equivalents. The Committee periodically has cash balances in excess of federal insurance limits available for depository accounts.

Bequests Receivable: The Committee's bequests receivable consist of amounts due from decedent members' last wills and testaments. The most significant bequest pertains to a deceased member's unconditional promise-to-give the Committee a portion of the estate after liquidation of debts and payment of expenses. The Committee's portion of the net estate was determined to be approximately $235,600, which was transfer to a trustee and is being held in trust for the benefit of the Committee given the annual contribution limits allowable under Federal Election Commission (FEC) guidelines. The trustee and escrow agent is annually releasing the amount allowable under FEC guidelines to the Committee. The remaining funds resulting from the distributions from the decedent's estate is being held in trust at a federally insured financial institution in money market funds for the benefit of the Committee.

Note B - Summary of Significant Accounting Policies - Continued

Bequests Receivable – Continued: The Committee received approximately $68,800 and $33,900, respectively, from the trustees holding the bequests during the years ended December 31, 2018 and 2017. The remaining bequest reflected at its net realizable value, which was determined by the Committee by initially discounting the initial bequest by an allowance for doubtful accounts and present value discount. Given the nature of the bequest and that the funds are being held in interest bearing accounts for the benefit of the Committee, the Committee determined that discounts for present value and collectability were unnecessary.

Prepaid Expenses and Other Assets: The Committee's prepaid expenses and other assets consist principally of prepaid rent, insurance, licenses, promotional supplies, and refundable deposits.

Property and Equipment: The Committee capitalizes property and equipment acquisitions at cost or fair value at time of donation and depreciates these items using the straight-line method of depreciation over their estimated useful lives, which range from approximately 3 to 5 years for furniture, equipment, and software and 15 to 39 years for building and related improvements. Expenditures for repairs and maintenance that do not extend the useful life of an asset, consumable supplies, and de minimis items are expensed as incurred. Depreciation and amortization expense was approximately $24,300 and $24,300, respectively, for the years ended December 31, 2018 and 2017. No significant loss on the dispositions or impairment of property and equipment was reported by the Committee during the years ended December 31, 2018 and 2018.

Deferred Rent: The Committee recognizes rent expense on its long-term operating leases on a straight-line basis. A deferred rent liability is reflected for the effects of rent escalation clauses and the difference between actual rental payments and the straight-line amortization. The Committee reported no leases with significant remaining escalations as of December 31, 2018.

Net Assets: The Committee classifies its net assets based upon the existence or lack of donor-imposed restrictions. When the Committee receives contributions that are restricted by the donor or limited as to their use and the Committee has not met the donor's restriction by the end of the reporting year, then the Committee reports these amounts as net assets with donor restrictions. Restricted net assets in which the Committee has met the donor's stipulations during the fiscal year are reflected as net assets released from restrictions in the accompanying financial statements. Any restricted amounts received and released from restriction in the same reporting period are reported as net assets without donor restrictions. The components of the Committee's net assets are as follows:

- Without donor restrictions Represents unrestricted resources that are available to support the Committee's operations at the discretion of the Board of Directors and management.
- With donor restrictions Represents amounts received and restricted by donors to support specific Committee programs and initiatives, such as the building fund, ballot access,
 candidacy initiatives, and college campus programs.

Net assets with donor restrictions are released from restriction either by the passage of time or by the Committee meeting the donors' stipulations. The Committee reported net assets with donor restrictions of approximately $7,900 and $7,700, respectively, as of December 31, 2018 and 2017, earmarked by the original donors for specific program initiatives.

Contributions and Donations: Contributions and donations are recognized at fair value in the period in which an unconditional promise-to-give is known or when a contribution is received, at the earliest point the contribution is both determinable and measurable by the Committee. Contributions are recognized as revenue and support without donor restrictions or with donor restrictions based upon the existence or lack of donor-imposed restrictions. Contributions and donations with donor-imposed restrictions in which the Committee has met the donor's stipulations are reflected as net assets released from restrictions. Revenue and support with donor restrictions in which the Committee met the donor-imposed restriction during the same fiscal year as the contribution are reflected as revenue and support without donor restrictions. Conditional promises-to-give are recognized when the conditions set forth by the donor are substantially met.

Intentions-to-Give: The Committee receives commitment cards from members who many times provide their credit card information for future contribution purposes. The members are generally making recurring contributions to the Committee and do not commit to a specific number of payments or period of time for which the Committee may charge the recurring gifts. The members may also decline the charges or request that the Committee cease making charges against their credit card at any time and completely at their discretion. The Committee treats these recurring contributions as intentions-to-give or conditional promises to give and as such, revenue is not recognized until the contribution is both determinable and measurable, which generally occurs when the credit card is processed and receipt received by the Committee.

Functional Allocation of Expenses: The Committee summarizes the cost of providing its various programs and activities on a functional basis in the accompanying financial statements. Accordingly, certain expenses were allocated to the program and supporting services benefited as reflected in the statement of functional expenses. Expenses are allocated on a reasonable basis that is consistently applied by management. Expenses that are allocated include compensation and benefits, which are allocated based upon estimates of time and efforts devoted to the functional categories, while joint costs are allocated based upon the percentage of communications devoted to functional categories. Significant estimates are required to functionally allocate expenses and to allocate joint costs to the program and supporting services benefited.

Fair Value Measurements: The Committee established a reporting framework for measuring and disclosing fair value measurements. Fair value measurement disclosures are required for assets and liabilities measured and reported at fair value in the accompanying financial statements.

Fair Value Measurements - Continued: The Committee determines fair value using a hierarchy based upon the lowest level of any input that is significant to the measurement with Level 3 being the lowest recognized level. The Corporation attempts to maximize the use of observable inputs (Level 1 and 2) and minimize unobservable inputs (Level 3). Accordingly, the Committee would classify financial instruments measured at fair value in any of the following categories: Level 1, which refers to instruments traded in an active market, Level 2, which refers to instruments not traded on an active market but for which observable market inputs are readily available or Level 1 instruments where there is a contractual restriction, and Level 3, which refers to instruments not traded in an active market and for which no significant observable market inputs are available. As of December 31, 2018 and 2017, the Committee determined that no significant assets or liabilities were reported at fair value on a recurring basis in the accompanying financial statements. Disclosures about estimated fair values and fair value measurements were determined by the Committee based upon pertinent market data and other information available as of December 31, 2018 and 2017. Considerable judgment may be necessary to interpret market and financial data and to develop fair value measurements in certain circumstances. The Committee's estimates of fair value may not be indicative of amounts realized at disposition.

Estimates: The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect certain reported amounts and disclosures. Accordingly, actual results could differ from those estimates and the difference could be material.

Note C - Concentration of Risk

Cash Balances: Financial instruments that subject the Committee to potential concentrations of risk consist of cash balances with banking institutions that exceed the federal insurance limits. As of December 31, 2018 and 2017, the Committee reported no significant bank balance in excess of federal insurance limits.

Bequests Receivable: As of December 31, 2018 and 2017, significantly all of the Committee's bequests receivable pertain to the remaining corpus from several decedent's estates. Accordingly, as of December 31, 2018 and 2017, the approximately $96,100 (or 10%) and $131,500 (or 11%), respectively, of the Committee's total assets pertain to amounts due from a single bequest.

Note D - Related Party Transactions

During the years ended December 31, 2018 and 2017, the Committee received approximately $31,000 and $52,400, respectively, in contributions and dues from board members and employees.

Note D - Related Party Transactions - Continued

In addition to the contributions and membership dues from current and former board members and key employees, these individuals also volunteer to serve the Committee and in various capacities. Additionally, the Committee paid $101,200 and $29,100, respectively, to related state affiliates for ballot access petitioning and voter registration campaigns and related travel reimbursements to key employees during the years ended December 31, 2018 and 2017.

Note E - Liquidity and Availability of Financial Assets

The following schedule reflects the Committee's financial assets as of December 31, 2018 and 2017 reduced by amounts not available for general use due to contractual or donor-imposed restrictions within one year of the fiscal years ended December 31:

		2018	2017
Financial assets at end of year	$	154,889	$ 366,774
Amounts unavailable for general expenditure
within one year of reporting period:
Bequest receivable due in more than one year		69,161	141,693
Donor restricted for payment of debt service		6,129	5,209
Donor restricted for program related initiatives		1,806	2,465
Financial assets available to meet cash needs
for general expenditure within one year	_$_	77,793	$ 217,407

As part of the Committee's liquidity management, management may invest any excess funds in short-term investments, such as bank savings or market funds.

Note F - Bequests Receivable

From time-to-time the Committee receives bequests and legacies from decedent members' last wills and testaments. Several bequests were outstanding as of December 31, 2018 and 2017. In October 2014, the Committee received notification from the executor and trustee of a deceased member in which the Committee was a named beneficiary of the member's estate, less any debt and expenses. In September 2015, the Committee entered into a release and indemnification agreement with the executor of the member's last will and testament in which the Committee's share of the estate was valued at approximately $235,600.

At the same time, the Committee entered into an escrow agreement with a trustee in which the Committee's interest in the member's estate was transfer and held in trust for the benefit of the Committee. The Committee receives annual distributions from the escrow in amounts allowed under the FEC regulations and guidelines. During each of the years ended December 31, 2018 and 2017, the Committee received approximately $33,900 and $33,900, respectively, from the trustee with the remaining balance of approximately $96,100 and $131,500, respectively, reflected as a bequest receivable as of December 31, 2018 and 2017.

During the year ended December 31, 2017, the Committee received notification from the executor and trustee of an additional bequest in which the Committee was a beneficiary of a deceased member's estate. The executor and trustee of the estate estimated the Committee's portion of the estate to be approximately $111,900 of which the Committee receivable approximately $33,900 and $33,900, respectively, during the years ended December 31, 2018 and 2017 given the Committee's interpretation of FEC guidelines and regulations. The remaining balance outstanding on this bequest receivable was approximately $44,100 and $78,000, respectively, as of December 31, 2018 and 2017.

The executors and appointed trustees are holding the remaining outstanding bequests in interest bearing accounts at federally insured financial institution for the benefit of the Committee. The Committee reported the bequest receivable at its net realizable value by discounting the initial bequest for an allowance for doubtful accounts and present value discount. The Committee determined that no significant discounts were necessary given the funds are held in interesting bearing, insured accounts. The Committee expects to receive approximately $35,500 annually from the trustee during the years ending December 31, 2019 and 2020 as set by the FEC.

Note G - Unsecured Lines of Credit

The Committee maintains two unsecured lines of credit with financial institutions in the form of business credit cards. The business credit cards have total available credit of $103,000 as of December 31, 2018 and require monthly payments of interest at annual rates that range from approximately 11.1% to 13.2% as of the year then ended. The Committee reported outstanding balances on the lines of credit totaling approximately $12,300 and $-0-, respectively, as of December 31, 2018 and 2017. Mortgage Payable: In April 2014, the Committee entered into a $500,000 secured promissory note with a regional financial institution to purchase the Committee's office headquarters. The secured note payable requires 119 monthly payments of principal and interest of approximately $2,900 beginning in August 2014 at an annual fixed interest rate of 4.85%. The mortgage also requires a final balloon payment due in July 2024 that was originally projected to be approximately $371,600; however, the Committee has made certain principal curtailments since inception of the loan. The Committee incurred interest expense of approximately $11,000 and $13,000, respectively, on the mortgage during the years ended December 31, 2018 and 2017. The outstanding principal balance and terms of the mortgage payable are as follow as of December 31, 2018:

LIBERTARIAN NATIONAL COMMITTEE, INC. (THE LIBERTARIAN PARTY)

AUDITED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS YEAR ENDED DECEMBER 31, 2018

Note K - Retirement Plan

The Committee maintains a 401(k) defined contribution retirement plan that covers employees who meet certain minimum age and length of service requirements. As a qualified retirement plan, employees may contribute a portion of their salaries on a tax-deferred basis up to statutory limits. The Committee has elected to make matching contributions to the plan based upon 50% of employee contributions up to 6% of the participant's qualified salary. The Committee incurred matching contributions and plan administrative expenses totaling approximately $12,400 and $9,800, respectively, during the years ended December 31, 2018 and 2017.

Note L - Commitments & Contingencies

Litigation and Disputes: The Committee is currently involved in several lawsuits stemming primarily from state ballot access and presidential candidacy issues. These suits involve various legal actions, claims and disputes with affiliates that arise from the normal course of business and that, in the opinion of management, will not have significant impact upon the Committee.

Membership Commitment: The Committee provides nominal or token promotional items to contributors and members, such as a periodic newsletter designed to keep members informed of current developments, encourage participation in the political processes, and to promote the interests of the Committee and its candidates. Although there is no contractual or legal requirement for the Committee to provide such services, as a part of its purpose and out of courtesy to its contributors, the Committee is committed to providing timely information and promotional items to its members. The Committee recognizes expenses on these programs and items as incurred and, as such, no liability is accrued for any implied member commitment.

Federal Regulation: The Committee is subject to federal and state election laws and oversight by the Federal Election Commission (FEC). The Committee is subject to the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, the Bipartisan Campaign Reform Act of 2002 (BCRA), and various FEC and IRS regulations. As such, the Committee is required to file monthly and annual reports with the FEC regarding contributions and expenditures of its funds. Additionally, the Committee is precluded from receiving contributions from corporations, labor unions, and certain other third parties, and contributions received from individuals are limited to annual amounts as determined by the FEC, which was $33,900 for each of the years ended December 31, 2018 and 2017. Furthermore, the Committee's books and records are subject to examination by regulatory bodies and such examinations can result in fines, penalties, or sanctions. Although the results of such examinations have not had a material impact upon the Committee to date, no assurance can be given regarding the uncertainty of any future compliance examinations.

Employment Contracts: In June 2017, the Committee entered into an employment agreement with its now former Executive Director.

Employment Contracts – Continued: The term of the contract is for a two and half year period ending December 2018. The former Executive Director's employment terminated during the year ended December 31, 2018. In April 2019, the Committee entered into an employment agreement with a new Executive Director through January 15, 2021. The employment contracts provide for a base monthly salary, benefits, and performance incentives based upon financial and other performance indicators. The employment agreement allows either party to terminate the agreement with a one month written notice without any liquidating damages.

Hotel Contracts: The Committee has contracts with hotels and other venues for conventions and other events. These contracts contain cancellation clauses that may require the Committee to pay certain liquidating damages in the event of cancellation. The amount of damages may vary depending upon the date of cancellation, numbers of rooms reserved, percentage of rooms resold by the hotel, etc. Also, in the event of cancellation, the Committee may also risk forfeiture of any deposits made with these hotels.

Note M - Income Taxes

Income Tax Status: The Committee is recognized as a tax-exempt political organization under Section 527 of the Internal Revenue Code (IRC). Under IRC Section 527, the Committee's exempt functions include all activities that relate to and support the process of influencing or attempting to influence the selection, nomination, election, or appointment of any individual to a public office. Certain activities unrelated to the exempt purpose, such as net investment income, are subject to taxation as non-exempt income. During the years ended December 31, 2018 and 2017, the Committee did not incur any significant income tax expense on its net investment income, which was under the specific deduction amount of $100 available on Forms 1120-POL.

Tax Contingencies: Although the Committee has not received any notice of intent to examine its tax returns, the Committee's tax returns remain subject to examination or review by tax authorities pursuant to various statutes of limitations. Accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America require management to evaluate tax positions taken by the Committee and to recognize a tax liability (or asset) if the Committee has taken uncertain tax positions that would more likely than not be sustained upon examination. Management is unaware of any significant uncertain tax positions arising during the years ended December 31, 2018 and 2017 that are more likely than not to be sustained should the Committee's tax returns be subject to examination. Accordingly, the Committee also did not incur or accrue any significant penalties or interest associated with uncertain tax positions during the years ended December 31, 2018 and 2017.

Note N - Subsequent Events Evaluation

Management has evaluated subsequent events for the period January 1, 2019 through July 12, 2019, the date on which these financial statements were available to be issued and during this period, there were no subsequent events that required recognition or disclosure in the accompanying financial statements.

Note B - Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Basis of Accounting and Presentation: The Committee prepares its financial statements on the accrual basis of accounting. Consequently, revenue is recognized when earned and expenses when obligations are incurred. The financial statements include certain prior-year summarized comparative information in total and not by net asset class. Such information does not include sufficient detail to constitute a presentation in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. Accordingly, such information should be read in conjunction with the Committee's financial statements as of and for the year ended December 31, 2018, from which the summarized information was derived. Certain prior year information was reclassified to adhere with the current financial statement presentation.

Income Tax Status: The Committee is recognized as a tax-exempt political organization under Section 527 of the Internal Revenue Code (IRC). Under IRC Section 527, the Committee's exempt functions include all activities that relate to and support the process of influencing or attempting to influence the selection, nomination, election, or appointment of any individual to a public or political office.

Note B - Summary of Significant Accounting Policies - Continued

Income Tax Status - Continued: Certain activities unrelated to the exempt purpose, such as net investment income, are subject to taxation. During the years ended December 31, 2019 and 2018, the Committee incurred no significant income tax expense on its net investment income, which was under the specific deduction amount of $100 available on Form 1120-POL. Although the Committee has not received any notice of intent to examine its tax returns, the Committee's tax returns remain subject to examination by tax authorities pursuant to various statutes of limitation. The Committee is also subject to oversight by the Federal Election Commission.

Revenue Recognition: Contributions and donations and bequests and legacies are recorded when received or when the unconditional promise-to-give is known at the earliest point determinable and measurable. They are recorded by the Committee as increases to its net assets without donor restrictions or to net assets with donor restrictions based upon the existence or lack of donorimposed restrictions. Any restricted amounts received and release from restriction in the same reporting period are reported as net assets without donor restrictions. Restricted resources from prior years in which the Committee meets the donor's restriction during the current year are reflected as net assets released from restrictions. Donated goods or contributed services meeting the requirements for recognition under accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America are reported at fair value at the time of donation. The Committee treats membership dues as contributions and donations in the accompanying financial statements given that members receive de minimis benefits in exchange for their dues. Revenue from contributions and donations are recognized at the earliest point an unconditional promise-to-give is both determinable and measurable. Revenue from conditional promises-to-give are recognized as the donor or grantor's conditions are substantially met. Revenue from any program service activities and conventions and events are recognized when earned.

Cash and Cash Equivalents: For financial statement presentation purposes, the Committee considers highly liquid debt instruments with maturities of three months or less, including money market funds, to be cash equivalents. The Committee periodically has cash balances in excess of federal insurance limits available for depository accounts.

Bequests Receivable: The Committee's bequests receivable consist of amounts due from decedent members' last wills and testaments. The most significant bequest pertains to a deceased member's unconditional promise-to-give the Committee a portion of the estate after liquidation of debts and payment of expenses. The Committee's portion of the net estate was determined to be approximately $235,600, which was transferred to a trustee and is being held in trust for the benefit of the Committee given the annual contribution limits allowable under Federal Election Commission (FEC) guidelines. The trustee and escrow agent is annually releasing the amount allowable under FEC guidelines to the Committee. The remaining funds resulting from the distributions from the decedent's estate are being held in trust at a federally insured financial institution in money market funds for the benefit of the Committee.

Note B - Summary of Significant Accounting Policies - Continued

Bequests Receivable – Continued: The Committee received approximately $72,000 and $68,800, respectively, from the trustees holding the bequests during the years ended December 31, 2019 and 2018. The remaining bequest reflected at its net realizable value, which was determined by the Committee by initially discounting the initial bequest by an allowance for doubtful accounts and present value discount. Given the nature of the bequest and that the funds are being held in interest bearing accounts for the benefit of the Committee, the Committee determined that discounts for present value and collectability were unnecessary.

Prepaid Expenses and Other Assets: The Committee's prepaid expenses and other assets consist principally of prepaid rent, insurance, licenses, promotional supplies, and refundable deposits.

Property and Equipment: The Committee capitalizes property and equipment acquisitions at cost or fair value at time of donation and depreciates these items using the straight-line method of depreciation over their estimated useful lives, which range from approximately 3 to 5 years for furniture, equipment, and software and 15 to 39 years for building and related improvements. Expenditures for repairs and maintenance that do not extend the useful life of an asset, consumable supplies, and de minimis items are expensed as incurred. Depreciation and amortization expense was approximately $22,900 and $24,300, respectively, for the years ended December 31, 2019 and 2018. No significant loss on the dispositions or impairment of property and equipment was reported by the Committee during the years ended December 31, 2019 and 2019.

Deferred Rent: The Committee recognizes rent expense on its long-term operating leases on a straight-line basis. A deferred rent liability is reflected for the effects of rent escalation clauses and the difference between actual rental payments and the straight-line amortization. The Committee reported no leases with significant remaining escalations as of December 31, 2019.

Net Assets: The Committee classifies its net assets based upon the existence or lack of donor-imposed restrictions. When the Committee receives contributions that are restricted by the donor or limited as to their use and the Committee has not met the donor's restriction by the end of the reporting year, then the Committee reports these amounts as net assets with donor restrictions. Restricted net assets in which the Committee has met the donor's stipulations during the fiscal year are reflected as net assets released from restrictions in the accompanying financial statements. Any restricted amounts received and released from restriction in the same reporting period are reported as net assets without donor restrictions. The components of the Committee's net assets are as follows:

- Without donor restrictions Represents unrestricted resources that are available to support the Committee's operations at the discretion of the Board of Directors and management.
- With donor restrictions Represents amounts received and restricted by donors to support
 specific Committee programs and initiatives, such as the building fund, ballot access,
 candidacy initiatives, and college campus programs.

LIBERTARIAN NATIONAL COMMITTEE, INC. (THE LIBERTARIAN PARTY)

Note B - Summary of Significant Accounting Policies - Continued

Fair Value Measurements - Continued: The Committee determines fair value using a hierarchy based upon the lowest level of any input that is significant to the measurement with Level 3 being the lowest recognized level. The Committee attempts to maximize the use of observable inputs (Level 1 and 2) and minimize unobservable inputs (Level 3). Accordingly, the Committee would classify financial instruments measured at fair value in any of the following categories: Level 1, which refers to instruments traded in an active market, Level 2, which refers to instruments not traded on an active market but for which observable market inputs are readily available or Level 1 instruments where there is a contractual restriction, and Level 3, which refers to instruments not traded in an active market and for which no significant observable market inputs are available. As of December 31, 2019 and 2018, the Committee determined that no significant assets or liabilities were reported at fair value on a recurring basis in the accompanying financial statements. Disclosures about estimated fair values and fair value measurements were determined by the Committee based upon pertinent market data and other information available as of December 31, 2019 and 2018. Considerable judgment may be necessary to interpret market and financial data and to develop fair value measurements in certain circumstances. The Committee's estimates of fair value may not be indicative of amounts realized at disposition.

Estimates: The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect certain reported amounts and disclosures. Accordingly, actual results could differ from those estimates and the difference could be material.

Note C - Concentration of Risk

Cash Balances: Financial instruments that subject the Committee to potential concentrations of risk consist of cash balances with banking institutions that exceed the federal insurance limits. As of December 31, 2019 and 2018, the Committee reported no significant bank balance in excess of federal insurance limits.

Bequests Receivable: As of December 31, 2019 and 2018, significantly all of the Committee's bequests receivable pertain to the remaining corpus from several decedent's estates. Accordingly, as of December 31, 2019 and 2018, the approximately $73,800 (or 6%) and $141,200 (or 14%), respectively, of the Committee's total assets pertain to amounts due from bequests.

Note D - Related Party Transactions

During the years ended December 31, 2019 and 2018, the Committee received approximately $41,100 and $31,000, respectively, in contributions and dues from board members and employees.

In addition to the contributions and membership dues from current and former board members and key employees, these individuals also volunteer to serve the Committee and in various capacities. Additionally, the Committee paid $3,400 and $101,200, respectively, to related state affiliates for ballot access petitioning and voter registration campaigns and related travel reimbursements to key employees during the years ended December 31, 2019 and 2018.

Note E - Liquidity and Availability of Financial Assets

The following schedule reflects the Committee's financial assets as of December 31, 2019 and 2018 reduced by amounts not available for general use due to contractual or donor-imposed restrictions within one year of the fiscal years ended December 31:

		2019		2018
Financial assets at end of year	$	291,018	$	154,889
Amounts unavailable for general expenditure
within one year of reporting period:
Bequest receivable due in more than one year		25,230		69,161
Donor restricted for payment of debt service		10,394		6,129
Donor restricted for program related initiatives	es1,7311,8		1,806
Financial assets available to meet cash needs
for general expenditure within one year	$	253,663	$	77,793

As part of the Committee's liquidity management, management may invest any excess funds in short-term investments, such as bank savings or market funds.

Note F - Bequests Receivable

From time-to-time the Committee receives bequests and legacies from decedent members' last wills and testaments. Several bequests were outstanding as of December 31, 2019 and 2018. In October 2014, the Committee received notification from the executor and trustee of a deceased member in which the Committee was a named beneficiary of the member's estate, less any debt and expenses. In September 2015, the Committee entered into a release and indemnification agreement with the executor of the member's last will and testament in which the Committee's share of the estate was valued at approximately $235,600.

At the same time, the Committee entered into an escrow agreement with a trustee in which the Committee's interest in the member's estate was transferred and held in trust for the benefit of the Committee. The Committee receives annual distributions from the escrow in amounts allowed under the FEC regulations and guidelines. During the years ended December 31, 2019 and 2018, the Committee received approximately $35,500 and $33,900, respectively, from the trustee representing the bequest with the remaining balances of approximately $60,700 and $94,500, respectively, reflected as a component of bequests receivable as of December 31, 2019 and 2018.

During the year ended December 31, 2017, the Committee received notification from the executor and trustee of an additional bequest in which the Committee was a beneficiary of a deceased member's estate. The executor and trustee of the estate estimated the Committee's portion of the estate to be approximately $111,900 of which the Committee receivable approximately $35,500 and $33,900, respectively, during the years ended December 31, 2019 and 2018 given the Committee's interpretation of FEC guidelines and regulations. The remaining balance outstanding on this bequest receivable was approximately $13,100 and $45,700, respectively, as of December 31, 2019 and 2018.

The executors and appointed trustees are holding the remaining outstanding bequests in interest bearing accounts at federally insured financial institution for the benefit of the Committee. The Committee reported the bequest receivable at its net realizable value by discounting the initial bequest for an allowance for doubtful accounts and present value discount. The Committee determined that no significant discounts were necessary given the funds are held in interesting bearing, insured accounts. The Committee expects to receive approximately $35,500 annually from the trustee representing each bequest during the years ending December 31, 2020 as set by the FEC. The FEC contribution limits for the year ended December 31, 2021 are pending.

Note G - Unsecured Lines of Credit

The Committee maintains two unsecured lines of credit with financial institutions in the form of business credit cards. The business credit cards have total available credit of $103,000 as of December 31, 2019 and require monthly payments of interest at annual rates that range from approximately 10.7% and 13.2% as of the year then ended. The Committee reported outstanding balances on the lines of credit totaling approximately $-0- and $12,300, respectively, as of December 31, 2019 and 2018. Interest expense incurred on the lines of credit totaled approximately $200 and $900, respectively, during the years ended December 31, 2019 and 2018. The lines of credit are revolving and subject to restrictions and annual renewals and call provisions of the lenders. The terms and balances owed on the lines of credit are as follows as of December 31, 2019:

Note G - Unsecured Lines of Credit - Continued

Unsecured lines of credit with regional financial institutions in the form of credit card accounts with total available credit of $103,000. The lines are guaranteed by the authorized users and carry variable interest rates tied to the lenders' prime rates, which were approximately 10.7% and 13.2%. The Committee reported balances of approximately $-0- and $12,300, respectively as of December 31, 2019 and 2018 with interest expense of approximately $200 and $900, respectively, during the years then ended. The lines of credit are revolving and subject to restrictions and renewals.

Note H - Debt Obligations

Mortgage Payable: In April 2014, the Committee entered into a $500,000 secured promissory note with a regional financial institution to purchase the Committee's office headquarters. The promissory note is collateralized by underlying real property and improvements and a security interest in all depository accounts held with the financial institution. The secured note payable requires 119 monthly payments of principal and interest of approximately $2,900 beginning in August 2014 at an annual fixed interest rate of 4.85%. The mortgage also requires a final balloon payment due in July 2024 that was originally projected to be approximately $371,600; however, the Committee has made significant principal curtailments since inception of the loan. The Committee incurred interest expense of approximately $8,800 and $11,000, respectively, on the mortgage during the years ended December 31, 2019 and 2018. The outstanding principal balance and terms of the mortgage payable are as follow as of December 31, 2019:

Secured promissory note in the form of a mortgage secured by the land and building purchased as the Committee's headquarters. The original principal balance resulting from the purchase in April 2014 was approximately $500,000. The note agreement is secured by the Committee's headquarter. The note agreement requires 119 monthly payments of principal of interest totaling approximately $2,900 with interest accruing at an annual interest rate of approximately 4.85%. The promissory note also requires a final final balloon payment due in July 2024 which was originally projected to be approximately $371,600. However, the Committee has made periodic significant principal curtailments. Interest expense incurred on the promissory note totaled approximately $8,800 and $11,000, respectively, for the years ended December 31, 2019 and 2018.

Capital Leases: During the year ended December 31, 2014, the Committee entered into two non-cancelable lease agreements for a digital copier and postage machine. The leases were determined by management to be capital leases and are secured by the underlying equipment. The leases are payable over 60 and 63 months, respectively, with monthly payments totaling approximately $600. The original principal balance at imputed annual interest rates of 2.89% and 11.03%, respectively, totaled approximately $33,000. As of December 31, 2019 and 2018, the net book values of the capitalized assets were approximately $-0- and $2,900, respectively, which was net of accumulated depreciation of approximately $33,000 and $30,100, respectively, for each of the years then ended. Interest expense incurred at the imputed interest rates noted above totaled approximately $200 and $300, respectively, during the years ended December 31, 2019 and 2018. The outstanding principal balance and terms of the capital lease liabilities are as follows as of December 31, 2019:

The original principal balances at inputted interest rates of approximately 2.89% and 11.03% totaled approximately $33,000 (or $28,400 and $4,600, respectively). The leases require monthly payments of principal and interest totaling approximately $600 (or $500 and $100, respectively). Interest expense on the capital lease agreements totaled approximately $200 and $300, respectively, during the years ended December 31, 2019 and 2018.

Note I - Temporarily Restricted Net Assets

The Committee's net assets consist of various funds restricted for the building fund, college campus programs, and legal defense and radio advertising funds. The Committee's net assets with donor restrictions consist of the following as of December 31, 2019 and 2018:

	 2019	 2018

Note J - Intentions-to-Give

The Committee receives commitment from members who many times provide their credit card information for future contribution purposes. The members are generally making recurring contributions to the Committee and do not commit to a specific number of payments or period of time for which the Committee may charge the recurring gifts. The members may also decline the charges or request that the Committee cease making charges against their credit card at any time and completely at their discretion. The Committee treats these recurring contributions as intentions-to-give or conditional promises to give and as such, revenue is not recognized until the contribution is both determinable and measurable, which generally occurs when the credit card is processed and receipt received by the Committee. During the years ended December 31, 2019 and 2018, the Committee recognized approximately $366,100 and $360,200, respectively, from recurring contributions from members.

Note K - Retirement Plan

The Committee maintains a 401(k) defined contribution retirement plan that covers employees who meet certain minimum age and length of service requirements. As a qualified retirement plan, employees may contribute a portion of their salaries on a tax-deferred basis up to statutory limits. The Committee has elected to make matching contributions to the plan based upon 50% of employee contributions up to 6% of the participant's qualified salary. The Committee incurred matching contributions and plan administrative expenses totaling approximately $12,900 and $12,400, respectively, during the years ended December 31, 2019 and 2018.

Note L - Commitments & Contingencies

Litigation and Disputes: The Committee is currently involved in several lawsuits stemming primarily from state ballot access and presidential candidacy issues.

Litigation and Disputes – Continued: These suits involve various legal actions, claims and disputes with affiliates that arise from the normal course of business and that, in the opinion of management, will not have significant impact upon the Committee.

Membership Commitment: The Committee provides nominal or token promotional items to contributors and members, such as a periodic newsletter designed to keep members informed of current developments, encourage participation in the political processes, and to promote the interests of the Committee and its candidates. Although there is no contractual or legal requirement for the Committee to provide such services, as a part of its purpose and out of courtesy to its contributors, the Committee is committed to providing timely information and promotional items to its members. The Committee recognizes expenses on these programs and items as incurred and, as such, no liability is accrued for any implied member commitment.

Federal Regulation: The Committee is subject to federal and state election laws and oversight by the Federal Election Commission (FEC). The Committee is subject to the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, the Bipartisan Campaign Reform Act of 2002 (BCRA), and various FEC and IRS regulations. As such, the Committee is required to file monthly and annual reports with the FEC regarding contributions and expenditures of its funds. Additionally, the Committee is precluded from receiving contributions from corporations, labor unions, and certain other third parties, and contributions received from individuals are limited to annual amounts as determined by the FEC, which was $35,500 and $33,900, respectively, for each of the years ended December 31, 2019 and 2018. Furthermore, the Committee's books and records are subject to examination by regulatory bodies and such examinations can result in fines, penalties, or sanctions. Although the results of such examinations have not had a material impact upon the Committee to date, no assurance can be given regarding the uncertainty of any future compliance examinations.

Employment Contracts: In April 2020, the Committee entered into an employment agreement with its Executive Director through January 15, 2021. The employment contracts provide for a base monthly salary, benefits, and performance incentives based upon financial and other performance indicators. The employment agreement allows either party to terminate the agreement with a one month written notice without any liquidating damages.

Hotel Contracts: The Committee has contracts with hotels and other venues for conventions and other events. These contracts contain cancellation clauses that may require the Committee to pay certain liquidating damages in the event of cancellation. The amount of damages may vary depending upon the date of cancellation, numbers of rooms reserved, percentage of rooms resold by the hotel, etc. Also, in the event of cancellation, the Committee may also risk forfeiture of any deposits made with these hotels.

Note M - Income Taxes

Income Tax Status: The Committee is recognized as a tax-exempt political organization under Section 527 of the Internal Revenue Code (IRC). Under IRC Section 527, the Committee's exempt functions include all activities that relate to and support the process of influencing or attempting to influence the selection, nomination, election, or appointment of any individual to a public office. Certain activities unrelated to the exempt purpose, such as net investment income, are subject to taxation as non-exempt income. During the years ended December 31, 2019 and 2018, the Committee did not incur any significant income tax expense on its net investment income, which was under the specific deduction amount of $100 available on Forms 1120-POL.

Tax Contingencies: Although the Committee has not received any notice of intent to examine its tax returns, the Committee's tax returns remain subject to examination or review by tax authorities pursuant to various statutes of limitations. Accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America require management to evaluate tax positions taken by the Committee and to recognize a tax liability (or asset) if the Committee has taken uncertain tax positions that would more likely than not be sustained upon examination. Management is unaware of any significant uncertain tax positions arising during the years ended December 31, 2019 and 2018 that are more likely than not to be sustained should the Committee's tax returns be subject to examination. Accordingly, the Committee also did not incur or accrue any significant penalties or interest associated with uncertain tax positions during the years ended December 31, 2019 and 2018.

Note N - Subsequent Events Evaluation

Management has evaluated subsequent events for the period January 1, 2020 through June 15, 2020, the date on which these financial statements were available to be issued and during this period, the World Health Organization (WHO) declared the novel coronavirus (COVID-19) outbreak a public health emergency. There have been mandates from international, federal, state and local authorities requiring forced closures of various schools, businesses and other facilities and organizations. These forced closures are impacting the manner in which business is conducted and could negatively impact the Committee's operations. While the closures and limitations on movement, domestically and internationally, are expected to be temporary, the duration of these disruptions, and related financial impact, cannot be estimated at this time. Management is currently evaluating the impact of the COVID-19 pandemic on its operations and while it is possible that the virus could have a negative effect on the Committee, management is currently unable to determine the specific impact as of the date of these financial statements. The financial statements do not include any adjustments that might result from the outcome of this uncertainty.

Appendix J – Audit Committee Report

LNC Audit Committee Report on 2019 Financial Statements

Audit Committee's Responsibility

Article 9, Section 2 of the 2016 bylaws:

"The National Committee shall cause an efficient double-entry system of accounts to be installed and maintained. Financial statements of the Party shall be prepared in accordance with Generally Accepted Accounting Principles (GAAP). Audits shall be performed annually by an independent auditor. The non-officer members of the National Committee shall appoint a standing Audit Committee of three members with power to select the independent auditor. One member shall be a non-officer member of the National Committee and the other two shall not be members of the National Committee. The Audit Committee shall present its findings to each Regular Convention and clarify for the National Committee any recommendations made by the auditor."

LNC Policy Manual 12-11-16, Section 2.02:

"The Audit Committee's tasks are to select an independent audit company and to direct the scale and scope of standard annual audits of the Party's accounting records and processes. Following receipt of the audit company's report, the Committee shall help the LNC interpret the audit results and assist the latter in preparing any action plans that might be needed to alleviate deficiencies."

The purpose of this Audit Committee's report is to interpret the results of the most recent audit. Because information provided in the auditor's report concerns the conduct of the audit and matters involving internal controls, such information is intended only for the Committee and management. As such, this document should be treated as confidential.

Auditor Comments & Recommendations

The LNC's outside auditors, Frye & Company, CPAs, completed an audit of the LNC's 2019 financial statements on June 15, 2020 giving the financial statements a clean bill of health:

"In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of [the] Libertarian National Committee as of December 31, 2019, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the year then ended in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America."

Six adjustments were recorded on the 2019 books during the audit. Most were small adjustments made to correct accruals, reclassify, and reconcile certain balance sheet and income statement accounts. The largest adjustment made was for $5,336 to reconcile fixed assets and depreciation expense. The cumulative effect of the 2019 adjustments was to increase net assets by $4,500.

The issues noted by Mark Frye in the Comments and Recommendations section of his Management Report did not result in material misstatements of the LNC's financial statements, therefore the LNC received an unqualified audit opinion on the 2019 books. An unqualified opinion is the highest level of assurance an auditor can give. Auditor Mark Frye provided suggestions for increasing internal controls, improving financial reporting, and ensuring compliance in a number of areas:

- Revenue recognition model: This new pronouncement from the Financial Accounting and Standards Board (FASB) applies primarily to earned income, so it will have minimal impact upon the LNC. It also provides additional direction on accounting for grants and contracts. This new guideline was originally effective for the Committee as of December 31, 2019 but was recently delayed until December 31, 2020. The LNC is currently in compliance in this respect according to Mark Frye.
- 2. Accounting for leases: A new FASB pronouncement effective December 31, 2021 significantly changes how operating leases are accounted for. The LNC did not enter into any new leases in 2019. The two leases in effect in 2019 were properly accounted for as capital leases.

APPENDIX J AUDIT COMMITTEE REPORT

3. Annual budget projection: Mark Frye recommends that management enter the approved budget into QuickBooks, particularly so because the annual budget is amended throughout the fiscal year. The audit committee does not have a concern in this respect given that the treasurer includes budget figures in his reports. Robert Kraus has noted that staff will enter the 2020 budget into Quickbooks.

2019's audit was particularly clean, thanks to Robert Krause and the rest of the staff involved with managing and recording entries on the LNC's books.

In conclusion, we are including a couple notes from Mark Frey: The mortgage on LNC headquarters is close to being paid off. Once the mortgage is satisfied, it will free up a significant amount of cash. While revenue was down in 2019 (which is to be expected in a non-election year), costs were better contained than in 2018, so the party reported a profit for 2019 as compared to the loss sustained in 2018.

Rationale for Proposal 2:

With the state of Maine's adoption of ranked-choice voting (aka instant runoff voting) for the presidential general election, a clarification is needed on the allocation of delegates to the LP National Convention which is based in part on presidential vote totals. With more and more states considering moving to RCV, this will only grow in importance, and would best be handled sooner than later.

First round of votes is used, because if the final round of tabulation is used, then an affiliate under this system could easily be considered to have had no votes at all for the Libertarian candidates, or if in the position of gaining more votes in later rounds (unlikely, but theoretically possible) have an unfair advantage over other affiliates without RCV.

Rationale for Proposal 3:

The existing language already requires a 2/3 vote for additional planks or additions to planks. In attempting to describe other types of platform amendments besides deletion of an entire plank, does not cover the full range of possibilities. What vote is required if one wishes to delete a word/sentence from a plank? It's not deletion of a plank. It's not an additional plank. It's not an addition to a plank.

With the existing language, one could argue that to remove text from a plank (even deletion of the word "not") only requires a majority vote. We believe the intended rule is that all amendments besides deletion of an entire plank should require the consistent standard of a 2/3 vote. This proposal would implement that intention.

evidence of sustaining membership and a signed statement of willingness to accept the nomination. No delegate may join in nominating more than one candidate per seat.[...]

Rationale for Proposal 4:

Because it is the Secretary rather than the Chair who receives and counts nomination tokens, the first change aligns the rule with existing practice.

In 2018 there were 35 candidates nominated for the 5 at-large LNC positions. It was evident that a number of these were nominations made on-the-fly by persons not actually intending for the candidate to be elected. The large number of candidates took extra floor time for nomination speeches as well as making the ballot tabulation take longer, despite the dwindling time left to complete elections.

Verifying eligibility status in advance of the election allows the candidate to correct the deficiency before this problem occurs. In recent years, even when delegates have requested that the eligibility of nominees be verified, we have presumed it without pausing to verify it. We have even had instances where individuals were elected to the LNC were ineligible and could not be seated. This creates a vacancy that is then filled by appointment by the LNC or by the regional chairs in the case of a regional representative. Many times delegates have nominated persons not even present, only to then scramble to try to contact the person and verify that they are willing to accept the nomination. Providing evidence of the required level of membership would be as simple as visiting the registration desk to obtain a verification from staff attesting to their membership status.

Running for our presidential ticket or for the LNC are important enough that candidates should be willing to spend a few minutes of intentional preparation for it, and this proposal establishes very low requirements for a person to demonstrate eligibility, willingness to serve, and the support of more than just a single nominator, all of which could be accomplished with one sheet of paper per candidate.

Rationale for Proposal 5:

Our rules currently require a state-by-state roll call of each presidential and vice-presidential ballot. The state-by-state roll call for the first presidential ballot is a fun and time-honored tradition. Because it is redundant to do a state-by-state roll call for all ballots, the delegates have consistently voted to waive this requirement for all subsequent presidential and vice-presidential ballots. This proposal would align our rules with our practice: state-by-state roll call for the first presidential ballot, with no roll call for all subsequent ballots.

Rationale for Proposal 7:

The existing eligibility requirements already preclude the Treasurer from serving on the Audit Committee, since he is an officer. For the same obvious reasons, the rule should also preclude the Assistant Treasurer from serving on the Audit Committee. Additionally, this proposal clarifies that LNC regional alternates may hold an Audit Committee seat.

Rationale for Proposal 8:

This change impacts the time at which amended Judicial Committee Rules of Appellate Procedure would take effect. The existing language has the prior term's rules remain in effect until the newly elected Judicial Committee SUBMITS the new rules to the LNC for (presumably) automatic approval. However, if there is some provision in those new rules which is so objectionable that the LNC exercises its power to disapprove the new rules with a 2/3 vote, then the time sequence is that the new rules went into effect briefly, and then went out of effect when the LNC disapproved them. If the new rules are so broadly objectionable, they never should have gone into effect for even a short period of time. This revised protocol changes the effective date from the status quo of when the rules are SUBMITTED to instead be when the new rules have been reviewed and APPROVED (or deemed approved) by the LNC.

Rationale for Proposal 9:

As our parliamentary authority, Robert's Rules already provides that a majority vote is a fundamental necessity for official action to be taken by a body, thus the first portion of Bylaw Article 11.6.a is redundant with Robert's Rules and doesn't need to be stated again in our bylaws.

It is difficult to understand what is even intended by the second portion of the section. Does it mean that the Platform Committee must vote on every single plank in the platform even if they are proposing no changes to some of them? Does it instead mean that no proposal can be made if it affects more than one plank, such as moving language from one plank to another, or that could be done as long as two separate votes were taken?

The final word change from "plank" to "proposal" is made to allow for the possibility that a single proposal from the committee might simultaneously impact two planks, such as moving language from one plank to another.

With section (a) removed, the section title seems too broad, as the only remaining subject would be minority reports, thus the section header is proposed to be updated as well to better reflect the content of the rule.

The committee report goes too far such that it treads into delegate rights in some cases, and in other cases it adds another hurdle to such minor things as a motion to recess.

This alternate proposal restricts the requirement to only "original main motions" which is a defined term in our parliamentary authority (RONR p. 100). It's essentially a motion which introduces a new item of business, which unlike the committee proposal would not apply to motions to close debate, motions to postpone, motions to recess, raise a question of privilege about too much noise in the hall, or even call for orders of the day (which normally a single delegate can demand), etc.

If a delegate needs to raise a point of order because they perceive a rule violation, other delegates less familiar with the rules may not yet be aware of the rule violation and won't have an opportunity to see the problem and agree with it until the mover gets to speak to explain what the problem is, which doesn't happen until after the motion has been seconded. The committee proposal could prevent a delegate from successfully pointing out that an important rule is about to be violated.

Rationale for Proposal 11:

Executive session is when a meeting is conducted in secret. This proposal would adapt the LNC's current policy on executive session, elevate it to the bylaws, and apply it to other LNC-created committees. It would also take the reasons which the LNC Policy Manual currently allows for executive session called by a majority (instead of two-thirds for anything else) and make those the only permissible reasons. In practice, the LNC only ever uses those reasons anyway, but this would close a loophole for potential abuse and strengthen the requirements for transparency and accountability. It would also require other committees to adopt the LNC's good practice of rising from executive session before taking votes or other actions.

Proviso: This proposal shall take effect only after the final adjournment of the 2020 convention.

Rationale for Proposal 12:

Our current rules do not require the Bylaws and Platform Committees to provide arguments for and against each proposal, and allow for multiple minority reports on each proposal. While the committees are de facto providing arguments for and against proposals, this is technically not allowed, as the rules envision one majority report and one minority report, rather than proposal-by-proposal analysis.

In 2018 there were a number of abuses of the minority report process:

- committee proposals had up to three minority reports on the SAME committee proposal
- some committee members signed more than one minority report on the SAME committee proposal
- committee members both voted for the committee proposal and then also joined a minority report on the same proposal

Initially on the convention floor it was ruled that the multiple minority reports were out of order, and only the minority report with the most signers would be taken up. This would have effectively allowed the committee majority to submit two proposals and prevent an ACTUAL minority report from being heard at all. Then the convention spent a large amount of time wrangling over the situation.

This proposed change seeks to prevent these types of abuses in the future. It slightly raises the number of signers required for a minority report such that it is mathematically less likely for there to be multiple minority reports.

The goal is for the committee to come to a more unified consensus rather than offering 4 different competing proposals to burn the clock at a convention with limited floor time. This proposal would also formalize committee majorities and minorities on each proposal providing written arguments to the delegates.

Rationale for Proposal 13:

The convention body moved this to a 4-year term to try to get the voting time reduced, but then was left in limbo with no members of the Judicial Committee. By moving this to regions, we ensure that there is distributed interests in the party, that the elections happen, that there's a replacement mechanism outside the LNC and convention, and the regions know their members better than the convention body anyway.

Minority Report on Proposal 13 by Dr. Moulton and Dr. Olsen:

We oppose this proposal and encourage delegates to vote it down because:

- 1) The best qualified candidates for the Judicial Committee are not necessarily evenly distributed by geography.
- 2) Much of the time saved on the main convention agenda would be offset by added time to regional caucus agendas.

Rationale for Proposal 13-A:

The existing rule allows Judicial Committee vacancies to be filled by the remaining members of the Judicial Committee. If, however, all Judicial Committee positions are vacant, there are no remaining members to fill the vacancies. Under our parliamentary authority, the principles of interpretation applied to such a situation say that since the rule specifies a particular appointment process, it precludes any other process such as an intervening convention filling the vacancies. This addition will allow a convention to act when all positions are vacant for whatever reason.

Rationale for Proposal 14:

Currently our boards and committees use Robert's Rules, but several of those rules make business much harder to conduct. Specifically:

- a) requiring a second prevents one member from taking time on a motion which does not have enough support to pass
- b) allowing committees to limit debate prevents filibustering and saves time
- preventing unilateral division (splitting one motion into several other motions, which RONR allows on motion of one person, without even requiring a second) prevents one person from hijacking a meeting or unraveling compromises.

Rationale for Proposal 15:

This bylaws proposal would extend some of the transparency provisions of the LNC to the convention committees: Platform, Bylaws and Rules, and Credentials. Many years these committees (collectively) or their secretaries (unilaterally) have refused roll call votes. Because Robert's Rules prevents a committee from setting its own rules of order, the committee could not pass an open meeting policy. Potential observers would come at their own risk, not knowing until on-site whether meetings would be open or recordings would be allowed.

Minority Report on Proposal 15 by Mr. Rutherford and Mr. Thrasher:

The minority is not opposed to the sentiment of this bylaws proposal, and would in fact prefer that committees choose to operate in this exact manner. However, the minority feels strongly that you can have only so many rules before an organization becomes unwieldy, and unsustainably complex. It is an unfortunate situation when the rules overwhelm the mission. This proposal offers a solution for a problem that does not exist. Not only can roll call votes be superfluous at times, needlessly increasing the time it takes to conduct business, this proposal goes on to codify in section 8 an action that is already in practice, as it is the members and delegates of the Libertarian party that hold the ultimate check over all committee activities. As committees answer to the delegates, the committees should operate as they see fit. If the delegates are unhappy with the committees, for any reason, the authority to initiate change rests with them alone. It is time to stop becoming a miniature version of the federal regulatory bureaucracy in which the rules are more important than the mission.

	Party.

Rationale for Proposal 16:

Editions of Robert's Rules of Order can be issued between our conventions, meaning our rules can be changed without us having any say. This proposal would require an affirmative step by the delegates to accept a new version of Robert's.

Robert's Rules should not be more important than the mission of the party, and there are times when the fixation on what Robert's would or would not do in a situation is detrimental to our mission. To remedy this, the second change replaces the word "govern" with "guide."

Delegates or committee members can then give Robert's a heavy weight when resolving a procedural situation, without it being the only factor.

Rationale for Proposal 17:

Various authorities have disputed whether our Bylaws require conventions to be in-person; the debate affected the party's options for completing convention business in the context of the COVID-19 pandemic. This proposal would explicitly empower a supermajority of the LNC to authorize online or remote participation in specified extraordinary circumstances.

Minority Report on Proposal 17 by Mr. Bishop-Henchman and Mr. Rutherford: While we agree that our Bylaws should be fixed to authorize online or remote participation in certain circumstances, we believe the current proposal is both too limiting (allowing it to be used only in narrow circumstances) and not limiting enough (allowing it be invoked by action of the LNC only). Instead, we propose that the section should read as follows:

The National Committee may by a two-thirds vote authorize an online location and/or remote participation at a Regular Convention, if ratified by at least 26 state chairs within thirty days.

Rationale for Proposal 18:

We have repeatedly failed to elect a full number of LNC at-large representatives and most recently have failed to validly elect anyone on the judicial committee. Those failures have been the result of three things: (1) a large field of candidates, many of whom with little to no support; (2) approval voting, where large numbers of delegates have engaged in strategic voting for their favorite candidates; and (3) significant floor time spent on trying to get a vote to permit another round of voting. Other proposals do address (somewhat) the large field, but it is still likely that there will be a field of 15-20 (as opposed to 40-50) candidates for LNC and JC with that proposal, approval voting has its draw backs of strategic voting, and it does not address the issues with approval voting, and, most significantly, a lack of a procedure to automatically move to additional rounds of voting without a need to suspend the rules. This proposal streamlines our voting procedures, dropping off LNC officer, at-large, and JC candidates who do not have appreciable support (5% or more) after the first round, along with a narrowing of the field to twice the number of vacancies that remain after the first round. Real favorites versus merely acceptable candidates will emerge from this process of moving away from approval voting, resulting in an election that is more representative of the desires of the body, and a third round is automatically called for. In short, this makes it far more likely we will elect a full, or almost full, slate of LNC at-large and JC members.

Minority Report on Proposal 18 by Mr. Bishop-Henchman and Ms. Crawford:
The problems we have had with approval voting are likely due to large fields of candidates, with many candidates entering the race casually with little forethought or support, serving to make voting decisions more difficult. Another proposal, Proposal 4, addresses this problem by requiring more delegates supporting a nomination before a candidate is accepted as a nominee. That proposal, instead of this one, should be adopted and given a chance to give us better results.

Rationale for Proposal 19:

Some delegates cast voice votes more loudly than others. Even so, it is often quite easy to discern from a voice vote whether there were more yes votes than no votes, so that works reasonably well for motions which require a majority vote for adoption. But it is much harder to accurately discern with the ear whether the yes votes were mathematically double the number of no votes.

RONR p. 45-46 recommends that: "A vote by voice is the regular method of voting on any motion that does not require more than a majority vote for its adoption... The simple rising vote (in which the number of members voting on each side is not counted) is used ... as the normal method of voting on motions requiring a two-thirds vote for adoption."

Instead, our conventions often use voice votes for motions which require a 2/3 vote. Rising votes are almost as quick to conduct as are voice votes, and the few extra seconds are worth it to decrease the chances of an error in judgment on such floor votes.

Minority Report on Proposal 19 by Mr. Bishop-Henchman and Mr. Craig:
Under the status quo, there is the option to use rising or counted votes on close votes, but this proposal would make it mandatory in many cases. Voice votes work fine since many of the votes we take that require a two-thirds threshold (suspensions of the rules, adopting or rejecting Bylaws proposals, adopting or rejecting Platform proposals) end up being lopsided with nearly everyone on one side. We do not believe this proposal is necessary, and believe that it will make convention business take longer.

	2020 Regular Convention.	2020 Regular Convention.

Rationale for Proposal 1:

Note: Due to the vote of the LNC authorizing the simultaneous online and in-person convention, the Committee believes that this proposal is no longer necessary. This proposal and its rationale are presented here for informational purposes.

This proposal authorizes, with minimal alteration to the usual rules and procedures, remote participation of delegates who are not physically present at the second sitting of the 2020 convention. This would be a one-time accommodation to the unusual circumstances of the 2020 convention and would not affect future conventions. It would be automatically repealed upon final adjournment with no need for the convention to take any further action.

This proposal incorporates by reference the work that has already been done by the LNC, staff, and volunteers to make such a system available and ready to use. This system includes a method to track the queue to be recognized and would allow for calling on speakers in the "digital mic" line, the same as the presiding officer usually rotates between in-person mics at a convention. This will also enable remote delegates to fully participate in nomination speeches and elections for LNC and Judicial Committee. Remote delegates would thus be able to participate in all of the convention's business rather than being excluded from some matters or requiring any special rules to limit their participation. Roll call votes will be taken with an electronic ballot for remote delegates and state delegation chairs will be provided their totals to report as usual, similar to the first sitting. Other votes may be taken through a quick electronic poll. These capabilities may also be used by delegates who are present in Orlando to accommodate the need for social distancing.

As a compromise that helped this proposal garner unanimous support on the committee, authorizing delegates to participate remotely would rest with the state delegation chairs, who may consult with their delegates and/or affiliate party as they wish. This would allow delegations to prioritize their in-person alternates over remote delegates if they prefer. It would also allow states that have no need for remote delegates to not use them. This provision would respect the right of each state affiliate party to be represented in the manner and by the delegates they prefer.

Proposal 1 Amend current Plank 1.9 "Self-Defense"

Adopted 16-0-1-3

CURRENT WORDING

The only legitimate use of force is in defense of individual rights life, liberty, and justly acquired property — against aggression. This right inheres in the individual, who may agree to be aided by any other individual or group. We affirm the individual right recognized by the Second Amendment to keep and bear arms, and oppose the prosecution of individuals for exercising their rights of selfdefense. Private property owners should be free to establish their own conditions regarding the presence of personal defense weapons on their own property. We oppose all laws at any level of government restricting, registering, or monitoring the ownership, manufacture, or transfer of firearms or ammunition.

Rationale for Proposal 1

This proposal fills a gap in the Platform regarding our opposition to restrictions on "firearm accessories." In the recent past, the government has pursued prohibitions on items such as on bump stocks, so this explicit is necessary for clarify of our position.

Proposal 2 Amend current Plank 1.7 "Crime and Justice"

Adopted 15-1-1-3

CURRENT WORDING

Government force must be limited to the protection of the rights of individuals to life, liberty, and property, and governments must never be permitted to violate these rights. Laws should be limited in their application to violations of the rights of others through force or fraud, or to deliberate actions that place others involuntarily at significant risk of harm. Therefore, we favor the repeal of all laws creating "crimes" without victims, such as gambling, the use of drugs for medicinal or recreational purposes, and consensual transactions involving sexual services. We support restitution to the victim to the fullest degree possible at the expense of the criminal or the negligent wrongdoer. The constitutional rights of the criminally accused, including due process, a speedy trial, legal counsel, trial by jury, and the legal presumption of innocence until proven guilty, must be preserved. We assert the common-law right of juries to judge not only the facts but also the justice of the law. We oppose the prosecutorial practice of "over-charging" in criminal prosecutions so as to avoid jury trials by intimidating defendants into accepting plea bargains.

Rationale for Proposal 3

While there are economic impacts entailed in this plank, as there are economic impacts in every facet of voluntary and peaceful relations, the main thrust of this plank is the free movement of people, and thus it belongs in the Personal Liberty section rather than the Economic Liberty section.

Rationale for Proposal 4

Removing this word shows that Libertarians do not believe that governments or other people can add any various limitations under the excuse of "reasonableness." The only justification for restraining the rights of individual is aggression, and that exclusion is already repeated throughout our platform as our underlying interpretative philosophy.

Our silence about any other government law, regulation, ordinance, directive, edict, control, regulatory agency, activity, or machination, including the necessity of any particular governmental system, should not be construed to imply approval.

Rationale for Proposal 5

If Libertarians are confused about the implications of our Platform, then certainly outsiders will be as well. The Libertarian Party takes no position as to whether or not a state or government is ultimately desirable or necessary having settled this dispute by amending the Statement of Principles to that effect in 1974. However, transitional statements in the Platform have confused members over the years and caused needless divisions and arguments between advocates of minimal government and advocates of no government. This addition makes it clear that that both positions are acceptable, and as far as the Libertarian Party is concerned, neither is more "Libertarian" than the other.

Rationale for Proposal 6

Private space service has supplanted government-sponsored space service in several key areas. What was once a matter of science fiction has become more real. New innovations from private companies include better, reusable rocket designs and efficient cost-savings measures. These advances by the private sector have injected new interest into space exploration and made possible missions which were not possible a decade earlier. Increasingly, it appears that many space services and exploration will in the future be driven by private industry rather than by NASA. NASA may always have a role in space investigations, but in the near future private industry and/or organizations may set the pace for exploratory as well as routine space missions. This new plank would allow us to communicate to the public that we welcome a new space age for private organizations and individuals, one which is unencumbered by burdensome government regulations.

Rationale for Proposal 7

This change brings the platform into line with the Statement of Principles which is the superior authority. The Statement of Principles is very careful to honor the Party's agnosticism regarding the necessity of government by noting that while the government does presently exist and must have certain limitations, it is acceptable to advocate for its nonexistence.

Rationale for Minority Report on Proposal 9

The minority believes that the second sentence of the majority proposal is overboard and subject to interpretation clearly out of the bounds of Libertarianism. For instance, would that sentence imply that private organizations that have religious convictions on gender be forced to affirm the truth of any self-identity? While we might hope they would make such affirmation, this cannot be forced as freedom of conscience and mind are as fundament as self-identity.

Rationale for Proposal 10

This last clause is redundant at best (as the prior clause already states that people may alter their forms of government) and violative of the Dallas Accord at worst as it could be interpreted to require the establishment of a new government if the former is abolished. This is contrary to the Libertarian Party's official position of agnosticism on the ultimate necessity of government in which it is acceptable to abolish government and not replace it.

Rationale for Proposal 12

The overriding philosophy of the Libertarian Party envisions a world free from force and fraud. While the current language tells readers what not to assume from silence, it gives no guidance on how to come to what might be the Party position on issues for which it is currently silent. By reminding readers of this overarching principle, it gives guidance on how other issues might be viewed and which options would not be possible. It also serves as a satisfying literary bookend.

Rationale for Proposal 15

While the current Platform lays out the Party's positions on some criminal justice issues, it does not fully address the problem of modern policing, which is an independent menace to liberty. America was founded without paid professional police. The Bill of Rights was written without any notion that the country would someday be patrolled by armies of government troops. We recognize the right of all people to resist tyranny and defend themselves and their rights. We condemn the use of force, and especially the use of terrorism, against the innocent, regardless of whether such acts are committed by governments or by political or revolutionary groups.

IF ADOPTED, WILL READ American foreign policy should emphasize peace with all nations, entangling alliances with none. We would end the current U.S. government policies of foreign intervention including military and economic aid; tariffs; economic sanctions; and regime change. We recognize the right of all people to resist tyranny and defend themselves and their rights. We condemn the use of force, and especially the use of terrorism, against the innocent, regardless of whether such acts are committed by governments or by political or revolutionary groups.

Rationale for Proposal 16

The current language of this plank is too militaristic rather than emphasizing the Libertarian position of peace and non-interventionism. Further, there is a need to recognize that intervention takes more forms than military involvement but also includes punitive economic policies and political sabotage.

Proposal 17 Amend current Plank 3.2 "Internal Security and Individual Rights" Adopted 10-9-0-1

CURRENT WORDING The defense of the country requires that we have adequate intelligence to detect and to counter threats to domestic security. This requirement must not take priority over maintaining the civil liberties of our citizens. The Constitution and Bill of Rights shall not be suspended even during time of war. Intelligence agencies that legitimately seek to preserve the security of the nation must be subject to oversight and transparency. We oppose the government's use of secret classifications to keep from the public information that it should have, especially that which shows that the government has violated the law. We oppose the use of torture and other cruel and unusual punishments, without exception.

Proposal 18 Amend current Plank 2.1 "Healthcare"

Adopted 9-6-2-1

CURRENT WORDING

We favor a free market health care system. We recognize the freedom of individuals to determine the level of health insurance they want (if any), the level of health care they want, the care providers they want, the medicines and treatments they will use and all other aspects of their medical care, including end-of-life decisions. People should be free to purchase health insurance across state lines.

PROPOSED AMENDMENT

We favor a free market health care system. Medical facilities, medical providers, and medical products (including drugs) must be freely available in the marketplace without government restrictions or licenses. Rationale for Proposal 18

Simply stating principles without benefits in such a personal and emotional issue can leave the false impression that Libertarians are cold and uncaring.

Rationale for Proposal 19

No matter what position any person takes on intellectual property, it is nearly universally acknowledged that the government's handling of this has been stifling and ham-handed. There are better free market solutions that can be allowed to flourish if the government would stay out. The market has already pioneered the way with the creation of items such as creative commons licensing.

STATEMENT OF PRINCIPLES

We, the members of the Libertarian Party, challenge the cult of the omnipotent state and defend the rights of the individual.

We hold that all individuals have the right to exercise sole dominion over their own lives, and have the right to live in whatever manner they choose, so long as they do not forcibly interfere with the equal right of others to live in whatever manner they choose.

Governments throughout history have regularly operated on the opposite principle, that the State has the right to dispose of the lives of individuals and the fruits of their labor. Even within the United States, all political parties other than our own grant to government the right to regulate the lives of individuals and seize the fruits of their labor without their consent.

We, on the contrary, deny the right of any government to do these things, and hold that where governments exist, they must not violate the rights of any individual: namely, (1) the right to life — accordingly we support the prohibition of the initiation of physical force against others; (2) the right to liberty of speech and action — accordingly we oppose all attempts by government to abridge the freedom of speech and press, as well as government ensorship in any form; and (3) the right to property — accordingly we oppose all government interference with private property, such as confiscation, nationalization, and eminent domain, and support the prohibition of robbery, trespass, fraud, and misrepresentation.

NOTES:

This report is subject to amendment at any time prior to the opening gaveling of the physical convention in July 2020.

The entire current platform can be found at: www.lp.org/platform. This report merely shows the portions for which the committee is recommending changes.

Since governments, when instituted, must not violate individual rights, we oppose all interference by government in the areas of voluntary and contractual relations among individuals. People should not be forced to sacrifice their lives and property for the benefit of others. They should be left free by government to deal with one another as free traders; and the resultant economic system, the only one compatible with the protection of individual rights, is the free market.

PREAMBLE

As Libertarians, we seek a world of liberty: a world in which all individuals are sovereign over their own lives and are not forced to sacrifice their values for the benefit of others.

We believe that respect for individual rights is the essential precondition for a free and prosperous world, that force and fraud must be banished from human relationships, and that only through freedom can peace and prosperity be realized.

Consequently, we defend each person's right to engage in any activity that is peaceful and honest, and welcome the diversity that freedom brings. The world we seek to build is one where individuals are free to follow their own dreams in their own ways, without interference from government or any authoritarian power.

In the following pages we set forth our basic principles and enumerate various policy stands derived from those principles.

These specific policies are not our goal, however. Our goal is nothing more nor less than a world set free in our lifetime, and it is to this end that we take these stands.

1.0 PERSONAL LIBERTY

Individuals are inherently free to make choices for themselves and must accept responsibility for the consequences of the choices they make. Our support of an individual's right to make choices in life does not mean that we necessarily approve or disapprove of those choices. No individual, group, or government may rightly initiate force against any other individual, group, or government. Libertarians reject the notion that groups have inherent rights. We support the rights of the smallest minority, the individual.

1.1 Self-Ownership

Individuals own their bodies and have rights over them that other individuals, groups, and governments may not violate. Individuals have the freedom and responsibility to decide what they knowingly and voluntarily consume, and what risks they accept to their own health, finances, safety, or life.

1.2 Expression and Communication

We support full freedom of expression and oppose government censorship, regulation, or control of communications media and technology. We favor the freedom to engage in or abstain from any religious activities that do not violate the rights of others. We oppose government actions which either aid or attack any religion.

1.3 Privacy

Libertarians advocate individual privacy and government transparency. We are committed to ending government's practice of spying on everyone. We support the rights recognized by the Fourth Amendment to be secure in our persons, homes, property, and communications. Protection from unreasonable search and seizure should include records held by third parties, such as email, medical, and library records.

1.4 Gender Autonomy

Individuals have the sole authority to determine and express their own gender identities. No entity has the power to supersede this individual authority.

Minority Report: Individuals have the sole authority to determine and express their own gender identities.

1.4 1.5 Personal Relationships

Sexual orientation, preference, gender, or gender identity should have no impact on the government's treatment of individuals, such as in current marriage, child custody, adoption, immigration, or military service laws. Government does not have the authority to define, promote, license, or restrict personal relationships, regardless of the number of participants. Consenting adults should be free to choose their own sexual practices and personal relationships. Until such time as the government stops its illegitimate practice of marriage licensing, such licenses must be granted to all consenting adults who apply.

1.5 1.6 Abortion

Recognizing that abortion is a sensitive issue and that people can hold good-faith views on all sides, we believe that government should be kept out of the matter, leaving the question to each person for their conscientious consideration.

1.6 1.7 Parental Rights

Parents, or other guardians, have the right to raise their children according to their own standards and beliefs, provided that the rights of children to be free from abuse and neglect are also protected.

1.7 1.8 Crime and Justice

Government force must be limited to the protection of the rights of individuals to life, liberty, and property, and governments must never be permitted to violate these rights. Laws should be limited in their application to violations of the rights of others through force or fraud, or to deliberate actions that place others involuntarily at significant risk of harm. Therefore, we favor the repeal of all laws creating "crimes" without victims, such as gambling, the use of drugs for medicinal or recreational purposes, and consensual transactions involving sexual services. We support restitution to the victim to the fullest degree possible at the expense of the criminal or the negligent wrongdoer. The constitutional rights of the criminally accused, including due process, a speedy trial, legal counsel, trial by jury, and the legal presumption of innocence until proven guilty, must be preserved. We assert the common-law right of juries to judge not only the facts but also the justice of the law. We oppose the prosecutorial practice of "over-charging" in criminal prosecutions so as to avoid jury trials by intimidating defendants into accepting plea bargains. Additionally, we believe police and prosecutors should be held accountable for misconduct that leads to wrongful convictions, or other acts of injustice.

1.9 Free Trade and Migration [moved from 3.4]1

We support the removal of governmental impediments to free trade. Political freedom and escape from tyranny demand that individuals not be unreasonably constrained by government in the crossing of political boundaries. Economic freedom demands the unrestricted movement of human as well as financial capital across national borders.

1.8 1.10 Death Penalty

We oppose the administration of the death penalty by the state.

1.9 1.11 Self-Defense

The only legitimate use of force is in defense of individual rights — life, liberty, and justly acquired property — against aggression. This right inheres in the individual, who may agree to be aided by any other individual or group. We affirm the individual right recognized by the Second Amendment to keep and bear arms, and oppose the prosecution of individuals for exercising their rights of self-defense. Private property owners should be free to establish their own conditions regarding the presence of personal defense weapons on their own property. We oppose all laws at any level of government restricting, registering, or monitoring the ownership, manufacture, or transfer of firearms, or ammunition, or firearm accessories.

1.12 Space Exploration

We oppose all government restrictions upon voluntary, peaceful use of outer space.

2.0 ECONOMIC LIBERTY

Libertarians want all members of society to have abundant opportunities to achieve economic success. A free and competitive market allocates resources in the most efficient manner. Each person has the right to offer goods and services to others on the free market. The only proper role of government in the economic realm is to protect property rights, adjudicate disputes, and provide a legal framework in which voluntary trade is protected. All efforts by government to redistribute wealth, or to control or manage trade, are improper in a free society.

¹ The deletion and the move of the entire plank are two separate and independent proposals

2.1 Property and Contract

As respect for property rights is fundamental to maintaining a free and prosperous society, it follows that the freedom to contract to obtain, retain, profit from, manage, or dispose of one's property must also be upheld. Libertarians would free property owners from government restrictions on their rights to control and enjoy their property, as long as their choices do not harm or infringe on the rights of others. Eminent domain, civil asset forfeiture, governmental limits on profits, governmental production mandates, and governmental controls on prices of goods and services (including wages, rents, and interest) are abridgements of such fundamental rights. For voluntary dealings among private entities, parties should be free to choose with whom they trade and set whatever trade terms are mutually agreeable.

2.2 Environment

Competitive free markets and property rights stimulate the technological innovations and behavioral changes required to protect our environment and ecosystems. Private landowners and conservation groups have a vested interest in maintaining natural resources. Governments are unaccountable for damage done to our environment and have a terrible track record when it comes to environmental protection. Protecting the environment requires a clear definition and enforcement of individual rights and responsibilities regarding resources like land, water, air, and wildlife. Where damages can be proven and quantified in a court of law, restitution to the injured parties must be required.

2.3 Energy and Resources

While energy is needed to fuel a modern society, government should not be subsidizing any particular form of energy. We oppose all government control of energy pricing, allocation, and production.

2.4 Government Finance and Spending

All persons are entitled to keep the fruits of their labor. We call for the repeal of the income tax, the abolishment of the Internal Revenue Service and all federal programs and services not required under the U.S. Constitution. We oppose any legal requirements forcing employers to serve as tax collectors. We support any initiative to reduce or abolish any tax, and oppose any increase on any tax for any reason. To the extent possible, we advocate that all public services be funded in a voluntary manner.

2.5 Government Debt

Government should not incur debt, which burdens future generations without their consent. We support the passage of a "Balanced Budget Amendment" to the U.S. Constitution, provided that the budget is balanced exclusively by cutting expenditures, and not by raising taxes.

2.6 Government Employees

We favor repealing any requirement that one must join or pay dues to a union as a condition of government employment. We advocate replacing defined-benefit pensions with defined-contribution plans, as are commonly offered in the private sector, so as not to impose debt on future generations without their consent.

2.7 Money and Financial Markets

We favor free-market banking, with unrestricted competition among banks and depository institutions of all types. Markets are not actually free unless fraud is vigorously combated. Those who enjoy the possibility of profits must not impose risks of losses upon others, such as through government guarantees or bailouts. We support ending federal student loan guarantees and special treatment of student loan debt in bankruptcy proceedings. Individuals engaged in voluntary exchange should be free to use as money any mutually agreeable commodity or item. We support a halt to inflationary monetary policies and unconstitutional legal tender laws.

2.8 Marketplace Freedom

Libertarians support free markets. We defend the right of individuals to form corporations, cooperatives and other types of entities commercial enterprises; based on voluntary association. We oppose all forms of government subsidies and bailouts to business, labor, or any other special interest. Government should not compete with private enterprise. We reject government charter of corporations. We call for a separation of business and state.

2.9 Licensing

Libertarians support the right of every person to earn an honest and peaceful living through the free and voluntary exchange of goods and services. Accordingly, we oppose occupational and other licensing laws that infringe on this right or treat it as a state-granted privilege. We encourage certifications by voluntary associations of professionals.

2.10 Sex Work

The Libertarian Party supports the decriminalization of prostitution. We assert the right of consenting adults to provide sexual services to clients for compensation, and the right of clients to purchase sexual services from consenting sex workers.

2.11 Labor Markets

Employment and compensation agreements between private employers and employees are outside the scope of government, and these contracts should not be encumbered by government-mandated benefits or social engineering. We support the right of private employers and employees to choose whether or not to bargain with each other through a labor union. Bargaining should be free of government interference, such as compulsory arbitration or imposing an obligation to bargain.

² This language is the subject of a pending passing email ball of but cannot be highlighted due to the necessary reverse formatting.

2.12 Education

Education is best provided by the free market, achieving greater quality, accountability, and efficiency with more diversity of choice. Recognizing that the education of children is a parental responsibility, we would restore authority to parents to determine the education of their children, without interference from government. Parents should have control of and responsibility for all funds expended for their children's education.

2.13 Health Care

We favor a free market health care system. Medical facilities, medical providers, and medical products (including drugs) must be freely available in the marketplace without government restrictions or licenses. As life-choking government regulations are lifted, medical costs will come down and quality will improve until even the poorest Americans can once again afford high quality medical care. We recognize the freedom of individuals to determine the level of health insurance they want (if any), the level of health care they want, the care providers they want, the medicines and treatments they will use and all other aspects of their medical care, including end-of-life decisions. People should be free to purchase health insurance across state lines. We oppose the government mandating or denying treatments or vaccines.

2.14 Intellectual Property

As we oppose all government intervention in marketplaces, we favor the repeal of intellectual property laws. Disputes between inventors, creators, authors, artists, businesses, and other such entities should be resolved without government interference.

2.14 2.15 Retirement and Income Security

Retirement planning is the responsibility of the individual, not the government. Libertarians would phase out the current government-sponsored Social Security system and transition to a private voluntary system. The proper and most effective source of help for the poor is the voluntary efforts of private groups and individuals. We believe members of society will become even more charitable and civil society will be strengthened as government reduces its activity in this realm.

3.0 SECURING LIBERTY

The protection of individual rights is the only proper purpose of government. The only proper purpose of government, should it exist, is the protection of individual rights.³ Government is constitutionally limited so as to prevent the infringement of individual rights by the government itself. The principle of non-initiation of force should guide the relationships between governments.

3.1 National Defense

³ This language had passed, but there was a technical defect with the vote. It is in the process of being ratified.

We support the maintenance of a sufficient military to defend the United States against aggression. The United States should both avoid entangling alliances and abandon its attempts to act as policeman for the world. We oppose any form of compulsory national service.

3.2 Internal Security and Individual Rights

The defense of the country requires that we have adequate intelligence to detect and to counter threats to domestic security. This requirement The desire to ensure security, gather intelligence, and repel threats must not take priority over maintaining the people's civil liberties of our citizens. The Constitution and Bill of Rights shall not be suspended even during time of war or curtailed, whether based on circumstances of war, natural disaster or emergency, or any other pretense. Intelligence agencies that legitimately seek to preserve the security of the nation must be subject to rigorous oversight and transparency by the people. We oppose the government's use of secret classifications to keep information from the public information that it should have, especially that which shows that the government has violated the law. We oppose the use of torture and other cruel and unusual punishments, without exception.

Minority Report. Recognizing that Libertarians hold diverse views on the state, we believe the liberties supposedly protected by the Constitution and the Bill of Rights shall not be suspended or curtailed, whether based on circumstances of war, natural disaster or emergency, or any other pretense. 3.3 International Affairs

American foreign policy should seek an America at peace with the world. Our foreign policy should emphasize peace with all nations, entangling alliances with none defense against attack from abroad and enhance the likelihood of peace by avoiding foreign entanglements. We would end the current U.S. government policy of foreign intervention, including military and economic aid; tariffs; economic sanctions; and regime change. We recognize the right of all people to resist tyranny and defend themselves and their rights. We condemn the use of force, and especially the use of terrorism, against the innocent, regardless of whether such acts are committed by governments or by political or revolutionary groups.

3.5 3.4 Rights and Discrimination

Libertarians embrace the concept that all people are born with certain inherent rights. We reject the idea that a natural right can ever impose an obligation upon others to fulfill that "right." We condemn bigotry as irrational and repugnant. Government should neither deny nor abridge any individual's human right based upon sex, wealth, ethnicity, creed, age, national origin, personal habits, political preference, or sexual orientation. Members of private organizations retain their rights to set whatever standards of association they deem appropriate, and individuals are free to respond with ostracism, boycotts, and other free market solutions.

3.6 3.5 Representative Government

We support election systems that are more representative of the electorate at the federal, state and local levels. As private voluntary groups, political parties should be free to establish their own rules for nomination procedures, primaries, and conventions. We call for an end to any tax-financed subsidies to candidates or parties and the repeal of all laws which restrict voluntary financing of election campaigns. We oppose laws that effectively exclude alternative candidates and parties, deny ballot access, gerrymander districts, or deny the voters their right to consider all legitimate alternatives. We advocate initiative, referendum, recall, and repeal when used as popular checks on government.

3.6 Territorial Autonomy⁵

We support self determination for the territories of the United States. The Federal government should accept the results of a referendum of each territory regarding preferences for statehood, independence, or to maintain their current status. For as long as the United States maintains territories, we support a constitutional amendment granting their full representation in the US House of Representatives.

Minority Report: Add to end of current plank 3.7 "Self-Determination" rather than make stand-alone plank.

3.7 Self-Determination

Whenever any form of government becomes destructive of individual liberty, it is the right of the people to alter or to abolish it, and to agree to such new governance as to them shall seem most likely to protect their liberty. We recognize the right to political secession. Exercise of this right, like the exercise of all rights, does not remove legal and moral obligations not to violate the rights of others.

4.0 OMISSIONS⁶

 $\underline{\text{In every matter, we advocate the consistent application of the principle of the non-initiation of}}$ coercion, physical force, or fraud. Our silence about any other particular government law, regulation, ordinance, directive, edict, control, regulatory agency, activity, or machination, including the necessity of any particular governmental system, should not be construed to imply approval.

Minority Report: 7 Our silence about any other particular government law, regulation, ordinance, directive, edict, control, regulatory agency, activity, or machination, even the necessity of government itself, should not be construed to imply approval.

These are two separate and independent proposals.

The minority report expresses no objection to the first change, but it is not included in the report as this is only a minority report with regards to the second change and is expressed using the language as it currently exists.

Appendix N – Election Anomalies and Other Convention Observations by Convention Secretary

Preface: The below are opinions and findings of the Convention Secretary and not part of the official findings of the convention.

CONVENTION OBSERVATIONS

I will outline several areas that should be taken into consideration if the Party ever finds itself again in a situation where there will be fully remote or hybrid participation at its biennial conventions. Many of these issues would be received if the Porcupine application became available for use.

Decision of LNC Regarding Online Participation

The entirety of the first day was taken up with the convention overturning the decision of the LNC that online participation would be fully allowed without any needed approval of the convention as LNC overreach. This was the major cause of the time overruns and the failure to reach the Platform Committee report potentially resulting in the waste of that committee's work. It is my opinion that this was completely predictable and argued the same at the time of the LNC decision and hope that future LNCs learn from this error.

Voting By Ballots

It was decided that each delegation could conduct its balloted voting in a manner of its own choosing but that the Party would provide Election Buddy as an option for any who wished to use it. I do not believe this was the correct decision logistically or in accordance adherence as close as possible to our convention rules. In fact, this decision led to a good portion of the election anomalies that will be discussed later.

The pertinent section of our convention rules reads as follows (emphasis added):

RULE 3: POLLING PROCEDURE

3. In cases where computer readable ballots are used, each delegate must sign the ballot and submit it to the delegation chair. After verifying that the number of votes cast does not exceed the number the state is entitled to, the chair of each delegation shall submit the ballots to the Secretary. During the period of time allotted for such votes, the business of the convention shall continue without interruption.

RULE 8: ELECTION OF OFFICERS AND NATIONAL COMMITTEE

- 1. Nominations for Party Officers shall be from the floor. The election shall be conducted in the following manner:
- b. Each delegation shall tabulate its total vote, and the delegation chair shall deliver a written total to the Secretary.

2. Nominations for the at-large members of the National Committee shall be from the floor. The election shall be conducted in the following manner:

b. Each delegation shall tabulate its total vote, and the delegation chair shall deliver a written total to the Secretary, along with the ballots cast.

Within the spirit of these rules, something must be "signed" (electronic signatures have been standard in the legal world for some years now) and given to the delegation chair so that there is a written record. For the officer races, our rules only require a tally sheet to be delivered to the Secretary. However, the At-Large (and Judicial Committee as another rules says that election is conducted in the same manner as At-Large), the actual ballots are to be delivered with the tally sheet. That did not happen. The reason for this is due to the use of approval voting where a lot of errors can make their way into the tally sheets. There is no way to turn in actual ballots unless there is some standard system used; otherwise there would be mass chaos in the teller process. Traditionally, all of the ballots were also turned in for the officer races even though not required by our rules, and since some of the officer races were done by approval voting at this convention, consistency would dictate that in a typical convention, those individual ballots would also be required.

There were other various issues with the remote balloted voting such as:

- Long delays before state delegation chairs received results from Election Buddy
- In the Vice-Chair race, there was an instance in which Election Buddy doubled votes leading to lack of confidence in the system

Voting By Remote Polls

There was an enormous issue with the polls at the second (2nd) sitting. It was known that people were voting twice, and other than admonishing people not to do that, no other action was taken to insure this did not happen. It is unknown how many polls were affected, and there were at least two (2) votes that were subject to counted division on the floor.

Member Speaking Rights

The remote delegates routinely had their microphones silenced when a few delegates were unruly. However, this solution prejudiced the rights of the rest of the remote members who should be able to interrupt like any delegate on the floor.

Vote Tellers

First Sitting

There was slowness that improved as the tellers learned where bottlenecks were occurring, and automation processes were implemented. One example would be the initial long time frame to email the tally sheets to the delegation chairs. There were unavoidable instance of the Google drive freezing when all of the tellers were hitting the tally spreadsheets at once.

Other delays happened when some delegation chairs did not completely follow the instruction and only emailed the tally sheets without uploading them to the teller drive.

Second Sitting

Some state delegations were extraordinarily slow in turning in their ballot sheets. This was not isolated to states with very large delegations. The reasons for this are unknown, but I would guess it was due to difficulties in whatever balloting method was being used. I will be soliciting input from the state chairs on these issues and will supplement this appendix accordingly.

Tally Sheets

Not infrequently, delegation chairs put vote totals for one (1) candidate on the line assigned to another. One suspected reason for this may be due to Election Buddy randomizing the names of the candidates, though it is unknown if that effected the final report sent to those delegation chairs. It may be desirable to forgo pre-printing the names on the tally sheets so that the delegation chairs have to write both the names and the totals to eliminate this issue. However, this may cause other issues as an unintended consequence.

Sudden Changes In Voting Procedures

A good of preparation goes into setting up tally sheets and voting total spreadsheets prior to convention based upon the convention standing rules. Sometimes, with the best of intentions with an eye to saving time, delegates will decide to suspend the rules to change the voting method for a particular election. This rarely saves time but rather causes further delays as the prepared documents can no longer be used. I would urge delegates to avoid doing this if the goal is to save time as such a change has the opposite result. Additionally, any change from one vote per candidate to a method that applies multiple choices (such as approval voting) greatly increases the potential for errors when tellers have to change to this method on the fly.

Additionally, at the second sitting, a change to approval voting was made for the Vice-Chair and Secretary races along with a stipulation to limit the election to one round only with the top-vote getter even if they did not get a majority. However, that second condition was ruled out of order as RONR requires explicit bylaws warrant for officers to be elected with less than a majority. Fortunately, both elections did produce a majority on the first round or the time complications from the switch in voting method could have been compounded.

General Suggestions And Observations

More tellers are needed. I did arrange for more tellers, but the rapidly changing conditions regarding the Florida convention caused many to cancel their trip. This is, though, a recurring problem even in the best of times. Ideally, tellers should be assigned to groups of states to maximize communication and work flow. This was done for the first (1st) sitting but was not able to be done for the second (2nd) sitting

ELECTION ANOMOLIES

General Notes

RONR p. 415, lines 32-35 through p. 416 lines 1-5 states:

All ballots that indicate a preference – provided they have been cast by persons entitled to vote – are taken into account in determining the number of votes for purposes of computing the majority. Each such ballot is credited to the voter's preferred candidate or choice if the meaning of the ballot is clear and the choice is valid. Unintelligible ballots or ballots cast for an unidentifiable or ineligible candidate are treated instead as illegal votes – that is, they are counted as votes cast for that office but are not credited to any candidate or choice.

This rule was not applied in several elections in which there were illegal votes which would have caused slight differences in final percentages that would not have effected any results.

Presidential Nomination

There were two discrepancies found that did not affect any results. In Round One, one (1) vote too few was counted for Vermin Supreme, and one (1) vote too many was counted for Jo Jorgensen in the Nebraska totals.

Vice-Presidential Nomination

There was one (1) discrepancy found that did not affect any results. In Round Three, two (2) write-ins for Edward Snowden were missed in Virginia totals.

LNC Chair Election

Round One: The only change would be that the four (4) votes cast for Dulap Nelson would be characterized as illegal but the number of ballots would not change, and thus, no percentages changed.

Round Two: No anomalies.

LNC Vice-Chair Election

Arizona: The tally sheet differs considerably from the spreadsheet as follows:

Candidate	Tally Sheet	Spreadsheet
Tony D'Orazio	2	2
Jacob Lamont	1	2
Richard Longstreth	19	20
Ken Moellman	5	6

Geoffrey Neal	5	5
Jeff Wood	1	1

The recording will need to be reviewed to see if these were corrections on the floor with the delegation chair failing to submit a corrected Tally Sheet.

New York: The spreadsheet shorted Jacob Lamont by five (5) votes and NOTA by three (3) votes.

None of these anomalies affected the results.

LNC Treasurer Election

This election was by unanimous consent. However, the convention rules require that officers are elected by ballot, and in such a case, even though only one person was nominated, delegates could write-in any other eligible candidate. The convention rules should have suspended prior to the election by unanimous consent. Considering there was no objection to the election, it can be reasonably presumed that the intent was to suspend the rules for this election.

LNC Secretary Election

Ohio: The results were corrected on the floor but need to be noted here. The tally sheet submitted by Ohio listed 22 votes for Dave Jones, and 3 votes for Evan McMahon. The delegation chair inadvertently reversed those numbers and conceded that he did. This unfortunately caused some abuse to be directed unfairly towards the tellers who accurately recorded what was submitted to them and to myself though I had no involvement in the counting of my own race.

Wisconsin and Wyoming: Similar to Ohio, they reversed votes. Wisconsin submitted a tally sheet showing seven (7) votes for Dave Jones and no votes for Evan McMahon. Those numbers were reversed. The chair disallowed this change on the floor as tardy since there was plenty of time for review, and it was starting to appear as if some states were attempting to change a result they did not like. Wyoming submitted a tally sheet showing four (4) votes for Caryn Ann Harlos and one (1) vote for Evan McMahon. These numbers were reversed and corrected on the floor. The disallowed change on Wisconsin's sheet would not have affected the result and would have caused a change of less than one percent (1%) in McMahon's vote total which still would have been four percent (4%) below Harlos. For the record, I believe that Wisconsin's numbers should have been permitted to change, and I accept that their error was genuine. Wisconsin's delegate chair kindly offered an apology to me as that error (along with Ohio's error) was part of the abuse directed to the tellers and myself.

Two (2) votes should have been characterized as illegal: one (1) vote for three (3) small children in a trenchcoat and one (1) vote for Elon Musk. It is unknown if the two (2) votes cast for Frankie Mermaid would be illegal, though it is likely they were. However, the number of ballots would not change, and thus no percentages affected.

None of these anomalies affected the results.

LNC At-Large Election and Judicial Committee Election

These were audited thoroughly after the convention and before the results were released with all discrepancies cleared up. The tellers did make a significant error that would have affected the results if it had not been caught prior to announcing the results, but that is the purpose of an audit. If these numbers were displayed as typical at the convention, it would have been caught at that time as it was a striking difference. As we had worked until late in the night, human errors are to be expected.
